FROM FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, to TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1808.

St. JAMES'S, FEBRUARY 22, 1808.

The following addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, at a General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, humbly approach the throne at this period, when we consider the dangers to which our country is exposed from the power and ambition of our enemies, to declare our firm resolution to support with our lives and fortunes the safety, honour, and independence of the British empire.

We are persuaded that it is only through the united and vigorous exertions of the strength and resources of the country we can expect either success or security; and being deeply impressed with a sense of the unexampled difficulties with which the state is surrounded, we reflect with pride and satisfaction that a due sense of all these difficulties will only serve to arouse in the minds of all ranks and descriptions of your Majesty's subjects, a firm resolution to surmount them, and a fixed and steady determination to consider no sacrifice too great, where the liberties, honour, and independence of our country are at stake.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment,

by

KELLIE.

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of your ancient Burgh of Tain, in common-council assembled, beg leave at this time humbly to approach your throne, to express our just and most grateful sense of the many blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious government; and to assure your Majesty, that at this momentous crisis, when the enemy, not only of this but all governments, by his unbounded ambition, calls for all the energies of your government, of our firm determination to support at all times, and by every means in our power, your Majesty's just rights, and the interests of the British empire.

We must feel with our fellow-subjects the burdens of war, but we consider them as burdens necessary and unavoidable, and to which we must cheerfully submit, assuring your Majesty that we have no interests inseparable from the dignity of your crown, and the independence of your kingdoms; and though the government of France has been indefatigable in its endeavours to annoy the commerce and manufactures of your Majesty's dominions, yet it affords great consolation to us, that these measures have not made that impression upon your Majesty's faithful subjects for which they were intended; and we are fully satisfied that it is only by persevering in prompt, wise, and vigorous measures, that your Majesty, the father of your people, can hope for the attainment of your wish, a safe, honourable, and lasting peace.

That God Almighty, the author of all mercies, may long preserve to us a Sovereign so deservedly dear to all his subjects, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Tain, this 27th day of January 1808 years.

Ch. Ross, Provost.
