

Wester, except for the reservation of the right of burial in the said Burial Ground of:—

- (i.) Persons whom the Town Council of the said Burgh may specially authorise to be buried in the said Burial Ground; and
- (ii.) Cremated human remains.

Provided as regards each Burial Ground that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to health or offensive or contrary to decency, that notice be given to the Burgh Sanitary Inspector not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened and that no burial, except the burial of cremated human remains, shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper surface of the coffin and that without interference with the remains of a previous burial.

E. C. E. LEADBITTER.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of July 1937.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Department of Health for Scotland have, in pursuance of the powers competent to them under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor, dated 13th November 1936, pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Fife, at Cupar, finding that the Burial Ground of the Parish of Kilrenny in the Burgh of Kilrenny, Anstruther Easter and Anstruther Wester, being the Churchyard adjoining the Old Parish Church of Kilrenny is in a condition which is contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground in terms of Section 5 of the aforesaid Act, except for the reservation of the right of burial hereinafter specified:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 8th day of June 1937, Notice of such Representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 23rd day of July 1937, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish of Kilrenny one month before the said 23rd day of July 1937:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz.:—

That burials be forthwith discontinued, in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, in the Burial Ground of the Parish of Kilrenny in the Burgh of Kilrenny, Anstruther Easter and Anstruther Wester, being the Churchyard adjoining the Old Parish

Church of Kilrenny except for the reservation of the right of burial—

(1) in the older portion of the said Burial Ground being that portion surrounding the Old Parish Church of Kilrenny shown coloured yellow on a plan signed by the Secretary of the Department of Health for Scotland and deposited with the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Kilrenny, Anstruther Easter and Anstruther Wester at his office in Anstruther of—

(i.) Persons whom the Town Council of the said Burgh may specially authorise to be buried in that portion of the said Burial Ground;

(ii.) Persons having the exclusive right of burial in any ground enclosed by walls or railings but to the extent of burial in such ground only; and

(iii.) Cremated human remains.

(2) in the newer portion of the said Burial Ground being the portion lying to the east of the older portion extending to about half an acre and shown coloured red on the foresaid plan, of—

(a) Spouses of persons who are already buried in that portion of the said burial ground;

(b) Unmarried sons and daughters whose parents are already buried therein;

(c) Parents of children already buried therein;

(d) Persons whom the Town Council of the Burgh of Kilrenny, Anstruther Easter and Anstruther Wester may specially authorise to be buried therein; and

(e) Cremated human remains.

Provided as regards each portion of the said Burial Ground that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to health or offensive or contrary to decency, that notice be given to the Burgh Sanitary Inspector not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened and that no burial, except the burial of cremated human remains, shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper surface of the coffin and that without interference with the remains of a previous burial.

E. C. E. LEADBITTER.

Privy Council Office,
30th July 1937.
