

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, APRIL 8, to TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1808.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 30th of March 1808,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas his Majesty, by his order in Council of the 11th of November last, was pleased to order and declare, that all trade in articles which are of the produce or manufacture of France or her allies, or of any other country at war with his Majesty, or from which, although not a war with his Majesty, the British flag is excluded, or of the colonies belonging to his Majesty's enemies, should be deemed and considered to be unlawful (except as is therein excepted): And whereas his Majesty, by his further order in Council of the 25th of November last, was pleased to ordain and declare, that nothing in the aforesaid order of the 11th November contained, should extend to subject to capture and confiscation any articles of the produce and manufacture of the said countries and colonies laden on board British ships, which would not have been subject to capture and confiscation if such order had not been made.

His Majesty, taking the said orders into consideration, is pleased; by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing in the said last-mentioned order shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize British ships to export and convey any articles of the produce or manufacture of the said countries, or colonies, from Guernsey, Jersey, Man, Gibraltar, Malta, or from any neutral or allied country, to any other country or place than to a port of the united kingdom, unless such articles shall have been previously imported into such places as aforesaid from some port of the united kingdom. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the admiralty, and the Judges of the High Court of Admiralty, and Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.
