BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION DIRECTING THAT SILVER COINS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM SHALL CEASE TO BE LEGAL TENDER IN BRITISH GUIANA FOR A PAYMENT OF AN AMOUNT EXCEEDING FORTY SHILLINGS.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by virtue of a Proclamation of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, dated the third day of February 1898 (hereinafter called "the Proclamation"), certain provisions of the Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by Section two of the Coinage Act, 1891, were applied with the modifications specified in the Proclamation to the colonies or possessions therein mentioned (including Our colony of British Guiana):

And whereas it was provided by the Proclamation that silver coins which, under Section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the Proclamation, were legal tender should, in any of Our said colonies or possessions in which the like coins were at the date of the promulgation of the Proclamation therein legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount, continue to be legal tender for a payment of any amount:

And whereas the Proclamation was promulgated in Our colony of British Guiana on the twenty-fifth day of March 1898, and at that date the like coins were in Our colony of British Guiana legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount:

And whereas by the Coinage Act, 1920, provision was made for the amendment of the Coinage Act, 1870, in respect of the standard of fineness of silver coins, and it was enacted that where by virtue of a proclamation made under Section eleven of the Coinage Act, 1870, the whole or any part of that Act was in force in any British possession at the date of the commencement of the Coinage Act, 1920, the Coinage Act, 1870, should, as from that date, apply in that possession as amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, and that any Order in Council or proclamation directing that any coins which under the Coinage Acts, 1870 and 1891, were legal tender in the United Kingdom should be current and legal tender in any British possession should extend to coins which were legal tender in the United Kingdom under the Coinage Acts, 1870 and 1891, as amended by the Coinage Act, 1920:

And whereas by virtue of the Coinage Act, 1870, it is lawful for Us with the advice of Our Privy Council by proclamation to revoke or alter any proclamation previously made under that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the silver coins which under Section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the Proclamation and amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, are legal tender should no longer be legal tender in Our colony of British Guiana for a payment of an amount exceeding forty shillings:

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of the said recited provisions and of all other powers enabling Us in this behalf do hereby proclaim, direct and ordain as follows:—

1. As from the first day of August 1938 the silver coins which under Section four of the Coinage Act, 1870, as set out in the Proclamation and amended by the Coinage Act, 1920, are legal tender shall in Our colony of British Guiana be legal tender for a payment of an amount not exceeding forty shillings, but for no greater amount, and accordingly so much of the Proclamation as provides that the said silver coins shall be legal tender for a payment of an unlimited amount shall, as from that date, cease to have effect as respects Our colony of British Guiana.

2. This Proclamation may be cited as the British Guiana (Silver Coinage) Proclamation, 1938.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, and in the second year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Bill Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday the 1st July 1938, at 1 o'clock for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £45,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 4th July 1938 to Saturday the 9th July 1938 inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House, or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

FACTORIES ACT, 1937.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that on the 24th June 1938 he made Regulations under the Factories Act, 1937, as indicated below.

The Regulations, which are substantially in accordance with the drafts issued on the 13th May 1938, will come into force on the 1st July 1938.

Copies of the Regulations can be purchased directly from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Adastral House, King's-way, London, W.C.2; 120 George Street, Edinburgh, 2; 26 York Street, Manchester, 1; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; or through any bookseller.

1. Sanitary accommodation regulations, determining standards of such accommodation under Section 7 of the Act.

2. Factories (intervals for women and young persons) regulations, prescribing, under Section 84 of the Act, conditions subject to which the women and young persons employed in a factory need not all be allowed the same intervals for meals or rest.

3. Night work of male young persons (medical examinations) regulations, relating to examinations by the Examining Surgeon of male young persons over 16 as to their fitness for employment in shifts at night under Section 81 of the Act.

4. Factories Act (Docks, Building and Engineering Construction, &c.) modification regulations, modifying or adapting (a) the provisions of the Act as to general registers, in their application to docks, wharves, quays, and warehouses (Section 105), and to building operations and works of engineering construction (Sections 107 and 108); and (b) the provisions of the Act as to steam boilers and air receivers in their application to building operations and works of engineering construction.

Whitehall,

Civil Service Commission,

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT BY COMPETITIVE SELECTION TO THE SITUATION OF SECOND CLASS CLERK IN HIS MAJESTY'S GENERAL REGISTER HOUSE, EDINBURGH.

N.B.—Competitions under these regulations are open both to men and women. Competitions do not take place at fixed intervals, but are held only on the occurrence of vacancies proposed to be filled from outside the Service. The regulations are liable to alteration from time to time.

1. The Keeper of the Registers and Records will take such steps as he thinks most appropriate to make known the existence of any vacancy or vacancies which he desires to fill on any one occasion, and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been such as to secure all desirable publicity.

2. Applications for appointment must be made to the Keeper of the Registers and Records on the prescribed form by a date to be fixed on each occasion.

3. Candidates must have attained 21 years of age and must not have attained 30 years of age on the last day fixed for the receipt of applications.

Women candidates must be unmarried or widows and will normally be required to resign their appointments on marriage; but exception to the rule requiring resignation on marriage may, in individual circumstances, be made where the employment of a married woman is considered advisable in the light of her special qualifications, or special experience in relation to the duties required of her, or of the special requirements of the Department.

4. Where the vacancy or vacancies to be filled are in the Sasine Office, candidates will be required to have passed the examination qualifying for admission as an apprentice to a Law Agent, or an examination of a standard accepted as equivalent by the Civil Service Commissioners and to have served in the office of a Conveyancer practising in Scotland for a period of at least five years after age 16, with the proviso that this period may be relaxed in the case of any candidate who has qualified by examination for a university degree in law.

Where the vacancy or vacancies to be filled are in the Record Office, candidates without the above qualifications may be accepted, provided they show that they have received such systematic education, general and/or technical, as in the opinion of the Civil Service Commissioners fit them for the post; in general, they should possess a university degree in arts or other equivalent qualification, and should have special qualifications for historical research and preferably some experience in such research.

Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as may be appointed.

5. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied, in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act.

6. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy, or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

7. The Keeper of the Registers and Records will examine the candidates' credentials, and will submit to the Civil Service Commissioners the names of those candidates who appear to have the requisite qualifications and to be best fitted for appointment. The Civil Service Commissioners, if dissatisfied with the number or quality of candidates, may require further search to be made for qualified candidates. The Civil Service Commissioners may, if they think fit, assist in the scrutiny of the application forms of the candidates.

The Civil Service Commissioners may submit any or all of the candidates to a qualifying examination as to educational qualifications.

8. Candidates who are recommended by the Keeper of the Registers and Records and are accepted by the Civil Service Commissioners as possessing the requisite qualifications will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board in Edinburgh, who will recommend for the vacancy or vacancies the candidate or candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, and the decision of the Selection Board will be final. The Selection Board will be constituted by the Keeper of the Registers and Records, who will preside over the Board, in consultation with the Civil Service Commissioners, who will be represented on the Board. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidate as shown at this interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence they will frame their decisions.

9. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health, and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have passed the prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Department.

10. A candidate selected for appointment will be required to pay a fee of £5 10s.

11. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with a candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.
