TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1938.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office,
St. James's Palace, S.W.1,
1st July 1938.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint the Right Honourable George Herbert Hyde, Earl of Clarendon, K.G., G.C.M.G., to be Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household in the room of the Right Honourable Rowland Thomas, Earl of Cromer, G.C.B., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., resigned.

Whitehall, July 1, 1938.

The KING has been pleased by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Realm, bearing date the 25th ultimo, to confer the dignity of a Viscountcy of the United Kingdom upon The Right Honourable William Douglas, Baron Weir, G.C.B., and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style, and title of VISCOUNT WEIR, of Eastwood, in the County of Renfrew.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Bill Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday the 8th July 1938, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £45,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 11th July 1938 to Saturday the 16th July 1938 inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House, or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

FACTORIES ACT, 1937.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that on the 30th June 1938 he made an Order under subsection (2) of Section 160 of the Factories Act, 1937, postponing from the 1st July 1938 until the 1st January 1940 the coming into operation of certain requirements of the Act in certain cases, namely:—

1. The requirement contained in subsection (2) of Section 13 of the said Act as respects factories in which the main transmission machinery is driven wholly or partly by water power.

2. The requirements contained in subsections (3), (4), (5), and (7) of Section 22 of the Act as respects hoists or lifts constructed or reconstructed before the passing of the Act in warehouses to which the provisions of Section 22 are applied by subsection (3) of Section 105 of the Act, subject to the condition that the hoist or lift shall be securely fenced so far as is reasonably practicable.

Copies of this Order, which may be cited as the Factories Act (Postponement of Certain Requirements) Order, 1938, can be purchased directly from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Austral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120 George Street, Edinburgh, 2; 26 York Street, Manchester, 1; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; or through any bookseller.

Whitehall,
1st July 1938.

FACTORIES ACT, 1937.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that on the 30th June 1938 he made Regulations under the Factories Act, 1937, as indicated below.

Copies of the Regulations can be purchased directly from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Austral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120 George Street, Edinburgh, 2; 26 York Street, Manchester, 1; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; or through any bookseller.

1. Factory Overtime (Separation of Different Parts or Sets) Regulations, 1938, prescribing under Section 73 (8) of the Act, conditions subject to which employment in different parts of a factory, or the employment of different sets of persons in different processes, may be treated, for the purpose of reckoning overtime, as if it were employment in different factories.

2. Operations at Unfenced Machinery Regulations, 1938, specifying under Sections 15 and 16 of the Act conditions under which certain operations may be carried out at unfenced machinery. These Regulations will come into force on the 1st August 1938.

Whitehall,
1st July 1938.

FACTORIES ACT, 1937.

In pursuance of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State for the Home Department proposes, at the expiration of 40 days from the publication of this Notice, to make regulations under subsection (9) of Section 73 of the Factories Act, 1937, entitled the Factory (Individual Overtime) Regulations, 1938. They would enable the occupier of a factory in which is carried on the manufacture of a variety of light metal articles or of fittings or accessories composed wholly or largely of metal to adopt the provisions of the Regulations allowing overtime employment to be calculated by reference to the individual, in substitution for the provisions of the Section limiting overtime employment by reference to the factory.

Copies of the Regulations may be purchased direct from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Austral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120 George Street, Edinburgh, 2; 26 York Street, Manchester, 1; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; or through any bookseller.

Amendments of Scheme approved on 28th June 1938.

COAL MINES ACT, 1930.
THE SCOTTISH DISTRICT (COAL MINES)
SCHEME, 1930.

Whereas in pursuance of Clause 25 of the Scottish District (Coal Mines) Scheme, 1930, amendments of the said Scheme as set out in the Schedule hereto have been submitted to the Board of Trade by the Executive Board elected under the provisions of the said Scheme:

Now therefore the Board of Trade, under the provisions of the said Clause and of subsection (5) of Section I. of the Coal Mines Act, 1930, hereby approve the said amendments and prescribe the 29th day of June 1938 as the date from which the said amendments shall come into force.

HARRY CROOKSHANK,
Secretary for Mines.

Board of Trade,
Mines Department,
Dean Stanley Street,
Millbank,
London, S.W.1.
28th June 1938.

SCHEDULE.

The Scottish District (Coal Mines) Scheme, 1930, shall be amended as follows:—

1. By deleting Clause 13 of the Scheme and inserting in lieu thereof the following new Clause, viz.:—

“ 13. In addition to the Committees of which the appointment is specifically provided for in the Scheme, the Board may appoint Committees of its own members or other persons and may delegate to such Committees such of its powers, functions and duties under the Scheme as it may think fit. The Board shall have power in appointing any Committee in terms of this Clause to specify the duration of such appointment, to make such provision as the Board may think fit for the convening and regulation of and voting at meetings of such Committee and to prescribe whether and to what extent the decisions of such Committee are or are not to be effective without confirmation by the Board. In the absence of provision by the Board to the contrary in the appointment of any Committee in terms of this Clause—

(a) the Board may cancel or vary the terms of such appointment at any time;

(b) such Committee shall meet and regulate its meetings as it may think fit;

(c) each member of such Committee on a division shall have one vote and the Chairman shall, in the case of an equality of votes, have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote; and

(d) no decision of such Committee shall be effective unless and until it shall have been confirmed by the Board.

All decisions of a Committee appointed in terms of this Clause shall forthwith be reported to the Board whether they do or do not require to be confirmed by the Board and the Board shall always have the same right to rescind or vary any such decision as it would have had in terms of the Scheme if such decision had been made by the Board itself."

2. By deleting from Clause 44 of the Scheme the words "subject to direction by the Board" and by adding after the word "powers" in that Clause the words "function and duties."

COAL MINES ACT, 1911.

The Secretary for Mines gives notice that on the 29th day of June 1938 the Board of Trade made General Regulations for Quarries under the powers conferred by Section 86 of the Coal Mines Act, 1911, as applied to quarries, by the Factories Act, 1937.

The Regulations, which are operative from 1st July 1938 are divided into six parts.

Part I. requires notice to be given to H.M. Inspectors of the opening and closing of quarries, lays down general requirements for the safe working of quarries, and defines in general terms the respective duties of the owner, the agent or manager, and the persons employed.

Part II. deals with health and welfare, and includes requirements with regard to first-aid; sanitary, messing, and changing accommodation; and the suppression of dust which may be injurious to health.

Part III. deals with the employment of women and of young persons under sixteen years of age, and, as required by Section 158 (3) of the Factories Act, 1937, applies without change the provisions of the Coal Mines Act, 1911, relative to the employment of women and young persons above ground.

Part IV. regulates the use of machinery and plant and contains provisions about the cleaning, oiling, and fencing of machinery, the use of cranes and other lifting machines, the care and maintenance of chains, ropes, &c., and the use of steam boilers and compressed air receivers.

Part V. is a code of rules, substantially the same as those already applying at coal mines and factories, to provide for the safe working of railway lines and sidings of standard gauge.

Part VI. prescribes the date on which the Regulations are to come into force and directs that they shall be in addition to and not in diminution of the provisions of Special Rules.

Copies of the Regulations, which may be cited as the Quarries General Regulations, 1938, may be purchased (price 4d. net) through any bookseller or directly from H.M. Stationery Office.

THE QUARRIES GENERAL REGULATIONS, 1938.

FIRST-AID.

The Secretary for Mines gives notice that on the 29th day of June 1938 the Board of Trade made an Order under No. 6 of the Quarries General Regulations, 1938.

The Order, which comes into force on 1st July 1938 prescribes the minimum contents of the first-aid boxes or cupboards required to be provided and maintained at quarries.

Copies of the Order, which may be cited as the Quarries (First-Aid) Order, 1938, may be purchased (price 1d. net) through any bookseller or directly from H.M. Stationery Office.

COAL MINES ACT, 1911.

The Secretary for Mines gives notice that on the 30th day of June 1938 the Board of Trade made General Regulations for Metalliferous Mines under the powers conferred by Section 86 of the Coal Mines Act, 1911, as applied to metalliferous mines by the Mining Industry Act, 1920.

The Regulations, which are in six parts, are operative from 1st July 1938 except as otherwise provided.

Part I. contains general safety provisions covering shafts and outlets, duties of winding enginemen and banksmen, ventilation, water dangers, travelling roads and working places, haulage, safety lamps and inflammable and noxious gases, fire precautions, notice of working of the mine, and the duties of Owners, Agents, Officials, and persons employed. The use of explosives, and lines and sidings of standard gauge, are left to be dealt with by special rules, as hitherto.

Part II. deals with health and welfare, and includes requirements with regard to first-aid; sanitary, messing, and changing accommodation; lighting (at shafts and on the surface); and the suppression of dust which may be injurious to health.

Part III. deals with the employment of women and young persons under sixteen years of age, and, as required by Section 158 (3) of the Factories Act, 1937, applies without change the provisions of the Coal Mines Act, 1911, relative to the employment of women and young persons above ground.

Part IV. regulates the use of machinery and plant and contains provisions about the cleaning, oiling, and fencing of machinery, the use of internal combustion engines below ground, the use of cranes and other lifting machines, the care and maintenance of chains and ropes, and the use of steam boilers, compressed air receivers, and winding apparatus.

Part V. deals with the use of electricity above and below ground and will be in substitution for the special rules, which apply mainly below ground, and for the Electricity Regulations under the Factory Acts, which at present apply above ground. The new requirements relating to the construction of cables and other electrical apparatus will not, in general, apply below ground until 1st July 1941 and above ground until 1st July 1945 to any cable or apparatus which was lawfully in use before 1st July 1938.

Part VI. prescribes the date on which the Regulations are to come into force and directs that they shall be in addition to and not in diminution of the provisions of Special Rules.

Copies of the Regulations, which may be cited as the Metalliferous Mines General Regulations, 1938, may be purchased (price 9d. net) through any bookseller or directly from H.M. Stationery Office.
