FROM FRIDAY, MAY 6, TUESDAY, MAY 10, to 1808.

St. JAMES'S, MAY 3, 1808.

The following addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled, embrace the opportunity which our meeting at this time affords us of approaching the throne with sentiments of unfeigned loyalty, and unshaken attachment, to your Majesty's sacred person and government; and we assure your Majesty, that, to the utmost of our power, we will continue to inculcate the same principles upon the people under our charge.

We acknowledge, with the sincerest gratitude to Almighty God, the inestimable blessings which the people of this country continue to enjoy under your Majesty's paternal government; for, while it has pleased Heaven to permit the downfall of many European states, our glorious constitution not only remains unimpaired, but Britain, in no period of her history, has assumed an attitude so truly respectable, so dignified and interesting, as at this moment, being almost the only nation in Europe not enslaved, and maintaining an awful contest for every thing valuable to freemen; against the most extensive confederacy that was ever formed for the destruction of any country. Encouraged by the goodness of our cause, and relying on the continued protection of Divine Providence, we view this formidable combination without dismay.

It is with peculiar satisfaction, Sire, that we observe your Majesty receiving from such of your subjects as must be supposed the greatest sufferers from the war, the most cordial assurances of determined support. Confiding in the wisdom and firmness of your Majesty's councils, in the skill and bravery of your Majesty's fleets and armies, and in the union of all ranks of your people, so necessary at this important crisis, we trust that your Majesty will, by the blessing of God, be enabled to defeat the destructive purposes of our enemies, to maintain the honour and independence of the country, and, in due time, to conclude a peace, at once secure, honourable, and lasting.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may long preserve your Majesty's valuable life for a blessing to your family, and to the British empire; to be the guardian of our constitution, and the defender of the Protestant church, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled.

Subscribed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Ayr, this 13th day of April 1808 years, by WILLIAM CRAWFORD, Moderator.

[Transmitted by David Boyle, Esq. Representative in Parliament for Ayrshire.]

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble address of the Clergy and Elders of the Isle of Sky, in Presbytery assembled.

The Presbytery of Sky, deeply impressed with the strongest sentiments of regard to your Majesty's sacred person and government, as well as great concern for the present most serious aspect of public affairs, beg leave, in all humility, to approach the throne, and express our abhorrence of the measures pursued by the arch enemy of these nations over which your Majesty so auspiciously reigns. We will exert our best endeavours to inculcate the principles and practice of our holy religion, and of loyalty and attachment to your person and government, on the people under our charge. We have every reason to hope, that, under your Majesty's present wise, good, and energetic government, and by the care and aid of Divine Providence, you shall be enabled to rescue your loyal, faithful, and devoted people from the perils and calamities with which they are threatened. Was it our province to fight, we would most willingly shed the last drop of our blood in defence of your sacred person, family, and government; but we will persevere in using the means which God has placed in our hands; and we will fervently pray for the continuation of your prosperity and happiness.

That the providence of the Almighty may be, in his mercy, pleased long to preserve the crown with glory and victory on your Majesty's sacred head; and that, after passing the remainder of your precious life in promoting, with your wonted goodness and paternal care, the happiness of your people, you be received into eternal bliss, and presented with a crown of glory not to fade, is the constant and most earnest prayer of your Majesty's most humble, most devoted, and faithful subjects and servants, the presbytery of Sky.

Signed in their name, and at their appointment, by DONALD MARTIN, Moderator.

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, in Synod assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty's presence with our warmest tender of affection for your sacred person, and attachment to our government. The ties of loyalty and of duty that connect us with your Majesty, derive a more powerful influence than ordinary from the perilous state in which we are placed at the present period. Marking the ruler of the French people, after having laid the mighty monarchies of Europe at his feet, now directing his undivided efforts towards the subjugation of this country, we are eager to range ourselves round your Majesty's throne, and contribute our best efforts for its defence and glory. If the mild and equitable sway of your long and prosperous reign; if the invaluable privileges of our happy constitution; if the blessings which Britons enjoy, superior to all other nations, be calculated to inspire one heart and soul, we beg leave to assure your Majesty that we feel the full force of their united influence.

The anxious care with which your Majesty has always watched over the interests of our holy religion has led you to judge it proper to exempt the Ministers of the Gospel from military service; but our heart is in the cause that has roused so many of our fellow-subjects to arms; and to their bravery, guided by the wisdom and vigour of your Majesty's councils, we confidently resign our defence, humbly trusting that the Almighty, who never forsakes his faithful servants, will continue to prosper whatever measures your Majesty may employ for the protection of your Kingdoms, and for bringing to a speedy and favourable issue the just and necessary war, in the maintenance of which the skill and intrepidity of your fleets and armies have been so frequently and signally displayed.

We beg leave to repeat our assurances of steady attachment to your Majesty, and to express our fervent prayer unto him by whom kings reign, that your Majesty may survive the arduous conflict in which you are now engaged, and live to see secured to your family and subjects those inestimable privileges, sacred and civil, of which you have ever proved yourself the protector and the guardian.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Synod of Dumfries, at Dumfries April 19, 1808, by JAMES CRIRIE, Moderator.

MAY 3, 1808.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral the Honourable Sir ALEXANDER COCHRANE, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to the Honourable W. W. POLE, dated on board his Majesty's Ship Belleisle, Marie Galante, March 12, 1808.

SIR,

I have the honour to inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter from Captain Selby, of his Majesty's ship Cerberus, commanding the blockading squadron off Point à Petre, Guadeloupe, who, finding the total impossibility of preventing the enemy's privateers and their prizes from gaining that port, while they continued in possession of Marie Galante, as they constantly took shelter under the batteries of that island, from whence they watched a favourable opportunity to run over, he came to the resolution of attempting the surprise of Grand Bourg, the principal town, in which the detachment sent on this service, under the command of Captain Pigot, of the Circe, completely succeeded; whose report is also inclosed.

The manner in which this service was planned, and the promptitude with which it was effected, reflects the highest credit on Captain Selby, the other captains, officers, and men employed thereon.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, at Anchor off Marie Galante, March 3, 1808.

SIR,

I beg to acquaint you of the surrender of the island of Marie Galante to his Majesty's arms.

Finding the island afforded a shelter for the enemy's privateers, with their captured vessels, and that it interfered considerably with the blockade of Guadeloupe, I considered it expedient to attack it; whereupon I gave Captain Pigot the command of about two hundred seamen and marines from the ships named in the margin; and, on the 2d instant, we weighed from Petit Terre, and, a little after daylight, effected a landing about two miles from the town with little opposition, and, soon after, the island surrendered at discretion, and the Commandant, with the national military force, are prisoners of war.

I find it a very valuable island, in the highest state of cultivation, and a large quantity of colonial produce in the stores. I have disembarked the marines, and garrisoned the place, and shall remain with the force under my orders for your further directions.

I herewith inclose Captain Pigot's letter to me on the occasion, (wherein I am happy to observe the high terms in which he speaks of Captain Bowen, and the officers and men under his command), together with a list of the arms and military stores taken on the island.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) W. SELBY.

To the Hon. Sir Alex. Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief, &c.

* Cerberus, Circe, and Camilla.

His Majesty's Ship Circe, off Marie Galante, March 2, 1808.

SIR,

You having done me the honour to give me the command of the debarkation of the seamen and marines of his Majesty's ship Cerberus, Circe, and Camilla, on the Island of Marie Galante, I have the pleasure to inform you it was effected without loss, and the only opposition, a few shot from a small battery to the northward; and that notwithstanding the badness of the roads through the cane patches, I have infinite satisfaction in adding, that the good order and cool conduct of both seamen and marines merits the highest praise. From our early appearance at the end of the town, we found but little preparations for resistance, except a field-piece, placed in the centre of the principal street, on approaching which a flag of truce was sent, and the island surrendered at discretion. I cannot close this without expressing the support I had in Captain Bowen, of his Majesty's ship Camilla, and all the officers employed on this service.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) HUGH PIGOT.

To Captain Selby, his Majesty's Ship Cerberus.

A Return of Ordnance found in the Island of Marie Galante, March 2, 1808.
