FROM TUESDAY, MAY 10, to FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1808.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For pardoning such Seamen and Marines as have deserted, and shall return into his Majesty's service on or before the 31st day of December next.

GEORGE R.

Whereas we are desirous to give all due encouragement to such seamen as may have deserted from any of our ships since the 10th day of October 1805, and shall be willing to return to our service; we have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to publish this our royal proclamation, and do hereby promise our most gracious pardon to all such deserters as shall repair on board any of our ships or vessels on or before the 31st day of December next; and we do hereby further promise our most gracious pardon to all such seamen as, having deserted, are now belonging to some one of our ships; and we do also hereby promise our most gracious pardon to all marines who may have deserted from our service since the said 10th day of October 1805, and shall on or before the said 31st day of December next, surrender themselves at the head-quarters of the royal marines established at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any recruiting party of our said forces; and we do hereby declare, that all seamen and royal marines so surrendering themselves as aforesaid, shall be released and discharged from all prosecutions, imprisonments, and penalties commenced or incurred by reason of any such offence; but that such pardon shall not entitle deserters, whether seamen or marines, to any arrears of pay forfeited by such desertion: And we do hereby further declare, that all such deserters, whether seamen or marines, who shall not on or before the said 31st day of December next, surrender themselves on board one of our ships or vessels of war, or at the head-quarters of the royal marines established at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to some recruiting party of the said forces, or who shall hereafter absent themselves from the ships to which they belong, or from the marine quarters, without leave from their commanding officers, shall be tried at a court martial, and being found guilty, shall be deemed unfit objects of our royal mercy, and shall suffer the punishment of death, or such other punishment as they shall be condemned to suffer by sentence of the said court.

Given at our Court at the Queen's Palace, the 4th day of May 1808, in the 48th year of our reign.
