PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, MAY 17, to FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1808.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, MAY 14, 1808.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral the Hon. Sir ALEXANDER COCHRANE, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to the Honourable W. W. POLE, dated on board his Majesty's Ship Belleisle, off Marie Galante, April 7, 1808.

I have the honour to inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter from Captain Selby, of his Majesty's ship Cerberus, acquainting me with the capture of the island of Deseada, and of his having caused all the batteries thereon to be destroyed.

The inhabitants have generally taken the oath of neutrality; I have not therefore left any force on the island, but only stationed a sloop of war and a brig there for its protection, and to prevent the enemy from throwing in a garrison from Guadaloupe.

The neutrality of this island will afford us greater facilities in annoying the privateers, and cutting off their prizes from getting into Point à Petre.

His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, at Descada, 30th March 1808.

SIR,

I have the satisfaction to announce to you the capture of the Island of Deseada by the force you did me the honour to place under my orders.

On the 29th instant I weighed from Marie Galante with the vessels named in the margin;* and on the 30th, at half past three P. M. the boats under the command of Captain Sheriff, of his Majesty's sloop Lily, with a detachment of seamen and marines from each vessel, under their respective commanders, (who gallantly volunteered their services on the occasion,) stood towards the shore, which was defended by a battery of two nine-pounders, completely commanding the narrow entrance of the harbour, together with the national troops and militia, amounting to about seventy men, who opened their fire upon the boats, when I found it necessary to anchor the squadron with springs on their cables, and commence a cannonading, which soon silenced them: at four o'clock the French flag was struck; the boats landed at half past four, hoisted the British flag, and the whole island surrendered without further opposition.

I have the satisfaction to acquaint you, that this capture has been effected without loss; the commandant, national officers, and troops are made prisoners of war, and the militia have laid down their arms.

I should not do justice to the merit of Captain Sheriff was I not to express in the highest terms my entire approbation of his conduct, together with Captain Ward, and all the officers and men employed on this service.

I have the honour to be, &c.

W. SELBIE.

The Hon. Rear-Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief, &c. Leeward Islands.

P.S. Under-mentioned is a list of the ordnance and military stores found on the island; the whole of the great guns I have destroyed as well as the batteries; and the small arms and other military stores I have taken off the island.

Iron Ordnance.

At the Principal Battery—3 twenty-four-pounders, and 2 nine-pounders.

At the Grand Bourg—2 nine-pounders, and 2 dismounted six-pounders;
50 whole barrels of powder.
50 muskets.

W. SELBY.

St. JAMES'S, MAY 11, 1808.

The following addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Lordship presented to the King; which addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace, of your County of Dumbarton, in a General County Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach the throne with renewed assurances of our unshaken fidelity to your Majesty's sacred person and government.

Whilst we are fully aware of the difficulties to which the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland stands exposed from the increased power of the French government, and the present unexampled depression of the other great powers of Europe, we are at the same time so truly sensible of the many inestimably valuable blessings which, under your Majesty's mild and auspicious reign, the people of this happy land enjoy above all others, that to defend and maintain those blessings we shall ever be ready to make sacrifices, and encounter difficulties equal to any crisis in which our country may be placed.

We doubt not, most gracious Sovereign, that such are also the sentiments of our fellow-subjects; and whilst we remain true to ourselves, by continuing united, we can have nothing to fear from the most formidable combinations, directed against the naval glory, the liberty, property, and independence of the British empire.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in the County-hall of Dumbarton, the 30th April 1808,

JAMES DENNISTOUN, Preses.

[Transmitted by Henry Glassford, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Stirling, actuated by principles of the purest loyalty and patriotism, beg leave to approach your Majesty, to express at this critical period our assurance of unshaken attachment to your Majesty's sacred person, family, and government.

We are persuaded that it is only through the united and vigorous exertions of the strength and resources of the country we can expect either success or security; and being deeply impressed with a sense of the unexampled difficulties with which the state is surrounded, we reflect with pride and satisfaction that a due sense of all these difficulties will only serve to arouse in the minds of all ranks and descriptions of your Majesty's subjects a firm resolution to surmount them, and a fixed and steady determination to consider no sacrifice too great, where the liberties, honour, and independence of our country are at stake; and we declare our firm resolution to support with our lives and fortunes your Majesty, your crown, and dignity, and the safety, honour, and independence of the British empire.

Signed in name, and in presence of the Meeting, by Sir William Bruce, of Stenhouse, Bart. Convener of the County, their Chairman.

WILLIAM BRUCE.

Stirling, April 30, 1808.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Montrose.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Seven Incorporations of Dumfries, unanimously beg leave to renew our solemn assurance of loyalty and attachment. We are not blind to the difficulties inseparable from the arduous contest in which this nation is at present necessarily and unavoidably engaged; and, in common with our fellow citizens, we have felt heavy burdens, and submitted to many privations to which we otherwise might have been strangers; but great and many as they are, we consider them nothing when compared to the degrading subjugation of other nations, and the disastrous situation to which the execrable measures of a presumptuous foe have reduced almost all the continent of Europe.

We look forward with confidence to the issue, as honourable to this kingdom, if the contest is persisted in with that steady energy of which Britain possesses the ample means, and by the cordial union of Britons, will prove invincible, and compel those nations to venerate our happy constitution, which they have not yet had the virtue to imitate.

Under these impressions, we are determined uniformly to co-operate, as far as in our power, in maintaining the honour and independence of your Majesty, and the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland, and its Colonies:

Signed in name and by appointment of the Incorporations, at their hall in Dumfries, the 19th April 1808, by JOHN FERGUSON, Convener.

[Transmitted by W. Johnstone Hope, Esq.]
