To be Sold, on the 1st September 1808, at 2 o'clock afternoon, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, under authority of the Court of Session,

AN extensive tract of FIR TIMBER, growing in the Forest of Rothiemurchus, in the county of Inverness, pursuant to the directions of the deed of entail executed by the late Patrick Grant, Esq. of Rothiemurchus.

These woods cover an extent of upwards of fifteen square-miles; they are all of natural growth, and their character is well known.

By the articles of sale, the use of these lakes, rivers, and sluices will be given to the purchaser, and a competent farm, at a certain rent, during the existence of the contract.

For further particulars, application may be made to James Grant, W. S. Edinburgh, Mr Alexander Grant, Serjeant's Inn, London, Mr Arthur Cooper, writer, Inverness, or to Mr Duncan McIntosh, at the Dell of Rothiemurchus, the principal forester, who will shew the forest.
