WAR DAMAGE ACT, 1941.

SECTION 7.

The War Damage Commission hereby give notice that they have, for the purpose of giving effect to directions given by the Treasury under sub-section (1) of Section 7 of the War Damage Act, 1941, and under the power conferred upon them by sub-section (2) of the said Section, specified the following class of works for making good war damage:—

Works costing more than £1000 or six times the gross annual value (if any) of the hereditament, whichever is the less, to be executed for making good the war damage sustained by any single hereditament situated within the Burgh of Clydebank.

The War Damage Commission also give notice that they, under the power conferred upon them by the aforementioned sub-section, impose on any person who proposes to execute for making good war damage any works (other than temporary works) of the above specified class, an obligation to inform the War Damage Commission of the proposal, and thereafter to furnish to them such particulars of the proposed works as they may require in any particular case.

For the purpose of this Notice lands and heritages separately entered in the Valuation Roll shall be deemed to be a single hereditament, except that in the case of a tenement or other building, parts of which are separately entered in the Valuation Roll, the tenement or building shall be deemed to be a single hereditament and in the case of any particular lands or heritages not entered in the Valuation Roll the particular lands and heritages shall be deemed to be a single hereditament.

F. P. ROBINSON, Secretary.
