

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, TO FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1808.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 21st of September 1808,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas his Majesty was pleased by his orders in council, of the 6th of January and 4th of May last, to direct certain measures to be taken for the care and custody of Portuguese property belonging to persons residing in Portugal or elsewhere, under the controul of France, which had been detained by British cruizers, and to subject such property to the future disposition of the Prince Regent of Portugal, in consideration of the owners being entitled to the possession of it while they remained under the controul of the enemy.

And whereas the deliverance of Portugal from such controul has since been effected, and the inhabitants of that country are again become duly qualified to receive the restitution of their property;

His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Portuguese property shall be forthwith restored to the respective owners thereof, or their lawful agents; and the persons appointed by virtue of the order in council of the 6th of January last, for the care and management of the Portuguese property, are hereby ordered to restore the same accordingly; such property nevertheless being subject to the payment of the legal charges thereon; and of the expences justly incurred in respect thereto; and all questions regarding the ownership of such property, where any doubt shall be entertained by the persons aforesaid, with respect to the same, and the charges and expences thereon, shall be decided upon summarily by the High Court of Admiralty, or the Court of Vice-Admiralty, in which such property may have been brought to adjudication.—And the right honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, his Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the High Courts of Vice-Admiralty are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

W. FAWKNER.

At the Court of the Queen's Palace, the 21st of September 1808,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled, "An act for further continuing, until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, an act, made in the 44th year of his present Majesty, for permitting the importation into Great Britain of hides and other articles in foreign ships," it is enacted, that an act, made in the 44th year of his present Majesty, intituled, "An act for permitting, until the 5th day of May 1805, the importation of hides, calf-skins, horns, tallow, and wool, (except cotton wool,) in foreign ships, on payment of the like duties, as if imported in British or Irish ships;" which, by an act, made in the 45th year of his present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the 25th day of March 1806, and extended to goat-skins imported in foreign ships; and which was further continued by an act, made in the 47th year of his present Majesty, until the 25th day of March 1808, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace: And whereas his Majesty was pleased, by his order in Council of the 23d day of March last, pursuant to the powers vested in his Majesty by the said act, to allow, for the space of six months from the 25th day of the said month of March, the importation in foreign ships of any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed, calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed, horns, or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool, (except cotton wool), and goat-skins, dressed or undressed, on the terms specified in the said order: And whereas it is judged expedient for his Majesty's service, that the said permission should be continued for some time longer, his Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months from the 25th day of this instant September, the importation of any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed, calf skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed, horns, or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool, (except cotton wool), and goat-skins, dressed or undressed, in any foreign ship or vessel; and his Majesty doth hereby order, that, on the arrival at any port of the united kingdom of any foreign ship or vessel, with any of the articles above-mentioned, the said goods shall be admitted to entry on payment of the same duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel.—And the right honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. FAWKNER.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER PATRICK SHIRREFF, Merchant, Prince's Street, Edinburgh.

UPON the application of the said Peter Patrick Shirreff, with the concurrence of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord ROBERTSON, Ordinary officiating on the Bills, upon the 30th September current, sequestrated the estates, real and personal, of the said Peter Patrick Shirreff, and appointed his Creditors to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Friday the 7th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, in order to name an Interim Factor; and at the same place and hour, on Friday 28th October, for the purpose of electing a Trustee. Of which this notice is given to all having interest.

Edinburgh, September 30, 1808.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN INCLIS, Merchant in Glasgow.

THE Lord ROBERTSON, Ordinary officiating on the Bills, did, upon the 28th day of September current, sequester the whole real and personal estate of the said John Inglis, and appointed his Creditors to meet within the writing-office of Nathaniel Stevenson, writer in Glasgow, upon Friday the 7th day of October next, at 2 o'clock afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor; and to meet at the said place and hour, upon Friday the 4th day of November next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee, as directed by the Statute. Of which this intimation is given to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN M'CAGIE, late Merchant in Elgin.

THE Trustee for the Creditors of the said John M'Cagie hereby intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors is to be held within the house of Andrew Percy, vintner in Elgin, upon Tuesday the 25th day of October next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, when a state of the Trustee's proceeding will be submitted to their consideration, and their instructions required as to his future proceedings.

Elgin, September 26, 1808.

NOTICE

A MEETING of the Creditors of WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM, baker in Edinburgh, will be held in Grieve's Tavern, Hunter Square, on Wednesday the 12th of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, to decide on an offer of composition. In the meantime, a state of the bankrupt's affairs may be seen in the hands of Mr George Houston, writer, Drummond Street, or Mr Henry Hardie, baker, Lawnmarket, the Trustee.

ALBION FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
 NEW BRIDGE STREET, LONDON,
 EMPOWERED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

AGENTS:—
 Edinburgh—Mr ALEXANDER ANDERSON, Merchant,
 South Bridge Street.
 Glasgow—THOMAS HAMILTON, Esq. Merchant.
 Aberdeen—Mr JOHN SIM, James's Street.
 Insurances falling due at MICHAELMAS, should be renewed within fifteen days from that period.
 Abatements are made, according to the plan which originated with this Company, on the Premiums of all Fire Insurances out of London. A large advantage is allowed on Life Insurance; and every facility is afforded by which the interest and accommodation of the public may be promoted.

WARNER PHIPPS, Secretary.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
MRS ANNABELLA THOMSON alias WILSON,
 Merchant in Dumfries, Relict of James Wilson, late Merchant there.

At a meeting held the 15th day of September current, the bankrupt made an offer to pay her Creditors a composition of 6s. per pound, in full of her debts, payable by three instalments, at nine, fourteen, and eighteen months from 26th August last.
 The Trustee, therefore, agreeable to the Act of Parliament, requests a general meeting of the Creditors, within the house of the bankrupt, in Dumfries, upon Friday the 7th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, in order finally to decide on the offer of composition, and on the responsibility of the proposed sureties for payment thereof.

Dumfries, September 24, 1808.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF
ROBERT JACK, Merchant in Stonehaven.
 At a meeting of the Creditors of the said Robert Jack, held upon the 20th day of September current, being the day following the last diet of examination of the bankrupt, he made offer of a composition of 7s. 6d. sterling in the pound on the debts due by him, with security, payable at six, twelve, and eighteen months, in equal proportions; after the offer shall be approved of by the Creditors, and sanctioned by the Court of Session, and also to pay the expence incurred under the sequestration. The meeting having taken the said offer into consideration, approved of the same, and appointed another meeting to be held in the writing-chamber of Alexander Webster, advocate in Aberdeen, the Trustee, upon Thursday the 13th October next; at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer. Of all which the Trustee hereby gives notice in terms of the Statute.
 Aberdeen, September 21, 1808.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JAMES GLENNY, Senior, Merchant in Aberdeen.
 JOHN LAW, advocate in Aberdeen, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James Glenny, hereby intimates, that he has made up a cast and scheme of division of that part of the bankrupt's estate which has been recovered by him since the 8th day of February last, among the Creditors who have lodged their claims, and also a statement of the funds not yet recovered, which lie in the hands of the Trustee, for the inspection of the Creditors, within his writing-room in Aberdeen, until Monday the 31st day of October next, when the second dividend will be paid to them. All in terms of the Bankrupt Act.
 Aberdeen, September 15, 1808.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
ALEXANDER PAUL & CO., and Alexander Paul and John Paul, Merchants in Leith.

At a meeting of the Creditors of the said Alexander Paul and Co., and of the said Alexander Paul and John Paul, the individual partners of that Company, held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse in Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 21st of September current, for the purpose of choosing Commissioners, and instructing the Trustee, the said Alexander Paul made offer of certain compositions on the whole debts due by Alexander Paul and Co., and the individual partners thereof, and to find security for the same, as particularly expressed in the minutes of the said meeting. The Creditors present unanimously approved of the offer; and the Trustee therefore now intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse aforesaid, upon Wednesday the 19th day of October next; at 1 o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of deciding on the said offer, in terms of the Statute.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF
