PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, to FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1808.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 26th of October 1808,

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by his Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the 1st day of November next, be further prorogued to Thursday the 8th day of December next.

St. JAMES'S, OCTOBER 26, 1808.

The following address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Hawkesbury, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Lordship presented to the King; which address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled, beg leave to approach your throne with hearts full of loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government.

At this important and eventful crisis, we congratulate your Majesty on the remarkable success of your arms in Portugal, and on the glorious and patriotic efforts of the Spanish nation in defending their liberty and independence as a people, events so advantageous to Britain in its political and commercial interests.

With the most sincere expressions of gratitude to Almighty God, by whom kings reign and princes decree justice, and to whom your Majesty, during your long and auspicious reign, hath looked up for wisdom to go out and come in before your people, we admire and approve of that generous and prompt assistance which your Majesty has been pleased to afford that brave and high spirited people.

Under the providence of God, who will ultimately bless the righteous cause, we hope and pray that their efforts may be crowned with complete success.

Most gracious Sovereign, it shall be our endeavour, as ministers of Jesus Christ, to impress on the minds of our people the many and great obligations under which they lie to your Majesty, for uniformly and conscientiously acting in conformity to those principles which placed your august family on the throne of these kingdoms, in preserving the liberties of your subjects, civil and sacred, and in opposing those tyrants who disturb the peace, and threaten to destroy the independence of the nations of Europe.

May your Majesty long be preserved to reign over a free, generous, and pious people, is the earnest prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Ayr, in full Synod assembled.

Signed in our name, presence, and by our appointment, by ADAM FORMAN, Moderator.
