TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1945.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of December 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section I. of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1944 (7 & 8 Geo. VI., Ch. 44), hereinafter referred to as the Act, it is enacted that the provisions of that Section shall apply to any organization declared by Order in Council to be an organization of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government or Governments of one or more foreign sovereign powers are members, and that His Majesty may by Order in Council provide that any such organization shall, to the extent specified in the Order, have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I. of the Schedule to the Act, and confer upon officers and servants of the organization the immunities and privileges set out in Parts II. or III. of the said Schedule to the extent specified in the Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the aforesaid Act conferred upon His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Article 1. The United Nations Organization set up by the Charter signed at San Francisco on the 26th June 1945 (hereinafter referred to as the Organization), and the Preparatory Commission of the United Nations set up by the Agreement Establishing the Commission signed at San Francisco on the same date (hereinafter referred to as the Preparatory Commission) are respectively organizations of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Governments of foreign sovereign powers are members.

Article 2. The Organization and, until its determination on the appointment of the Secretary General of the Organization, the Preparatory Commission, shall have the immunities and privileges set forth in Part I. of the Schedule to the Act.

Article 3.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies, not being British subjects and not exceeding at any one time ten in number, shall, for the period for which their names appear as persons so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section I. of the Act, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II. of the Schedule to the Act, save to the extent that the Organization or the Preparatory Commission, as the case may be, waives any of the said immunities and privileges in any given case.

(2) the persons to whom this Article applies are

(a) the Secretary-General and any Assistant Secretary-General of the Organization and any other officer of the Organization holding a rank equivalent to Assistant Secretary-General; and

(b) pending the appointment of the Secretary-General of the Organization, the Executive Secretary and Deputy Executive Secretary of the Preparatory Commission and any other officer of the Preparatory Commission holding a rank equivalent to Deputy Executive Secretary.

Article 4.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act and, if they are nationals or citizens of, or belong to, any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, those specified in paragraph 2 (a) thereof:

Provided that—

(i) in the case of persons referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, the Organization or the Preparatory Commission, as the case may be, may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii) the exemption or relief from tax and rates, provided in the said paragraph 2 (a) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act, shall not extend to any person whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to British subjects who hold in the Organization or in the Preparatory Commission, as the case may be, any of the offices referred to in Article 3 (2) hereof.

Article 5. 1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) The Organization or the Preparatory Commission, as the case may be, may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii) the exemption from income tax specified in the said paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies

(a) to all officers of the Organization holding the rank of, or a rank equivalent to, Director, Assistant Director, Counsellor, Principal Secretary, Assistant Principal Secretary, Secretary and Head Assistant; and,

(b) pending the appointment of the Secretary General of the Organization, to all officers of the Preparatory Commission, holding the rank of, or a rank equivalent to, Administrative Secretary, Deputy and Assistant Administrative Secretary, Chief of Section, Deputy Assistant and Associate Chief of Section.

Article 6. All officers of the Organization and, pending the appointment of the Secretary General of the Organization, of the Preparatory Commission, other than those referred to in Articles 3, 4, and 5 above, shall have the exemption from income tax specified in paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) the Organization or the Preparatory Commission, as the case may be, may waive any privilege; and

(ii) this privilege shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

Article 7. This Order may be cited as "The Diplomatic Privileges (United Nations Organization and Preparatory Commission) Order in Council, 1945." It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

And the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday the 14th December 1945, at 1 p.m., for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Acts, 1939 to 1945, to the amount of £130,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000, or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 17th December 1945 to Saturday the 22nd December 1945 inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House, or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday, 12 noon) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.
