The Chief Inspector of Factories gives notice that, in consequence of the resignation of Dr. J. M. Latest date for receipt of applications: 15th February 1947.

Civil Service Commission. 17th January 1947.

The following Regulations are published by the Civil Service Commissioners with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

TEMPORARY (RECONSTRUCTION) REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF HOUSEMASTERS IN BORSTAL INSTITUTIONS AND PRISONS UNDER THE PRISON COMMISSION.

N.B. These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time. Competitions do not take place at fixed intervals, but are held as occasion arises on the occurrence of vacancies; the competitions are open to male candidates only.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 21 on the 1st January of the year in which the competition is held, and must have been born on or after 2nd August 1905.

2. Every candidate must be either :—

(1) a natural-born British subject—

(a) having at least one parent who is or was at the time of death a British subject; or

(b) of any other parentage, provided that he has resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment; or

(2) a naturalized British subject, who has resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment; or

(3) a British subject who, although not fulfilling the requirements of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), satisfies the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing, or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

3. No person actually serving in the Army, Navy, or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g. the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. The Prison Commissioners will take such steps as they think most appropriate to collect candidates and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been sufficient.

5. Application shall be addressed in the first instance to the Establishment Officer, Prison Commission, Horseferry House, Thorney Street, Westminster, London, S.W.1, and shall be made on a form to be obtained from that office. The Prison Commissioners will examine the candidates' credentials and will propose to the Civil Service Commissioners the names of such candidates as appear to be best qualified. The Civil Service Commissioners may, if dissatisfied with the number or quality of candidates for any vacancy, require further search to be made for suitable candidates. They may also, if they think fit, assist in the scrutiny of the application forms of the candidates.

6. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have such experience and education as fit them for the post. In general, candidates should be men of sound general education, able to hold their own with all ranks and to fill a position of responsibility in which tact and judgment are required. They should have personal knowledge of the life of working class lads. A keen interest in difficult reformative work is essential.

7. Candidates who are proposed by the Prison Commissioners and are accepted by the Civil Service Commissioners as possessing the requisite qualifications will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board consisting of representatives of the Prison Commissioners and of the Civil Service Commissioners, who will select for the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, provided they find so many suitable. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at this interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence they will frame their decisions. The decision of the Selection Board will be final.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons (except as referees to be named by them in their application form) will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.

9. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health, and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have passed the prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Prison Commissioners.

10. A selected candidate will be required to pay a fee of 7s. 6d. before the issue of the certificate of qualification for appointment.
