PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, MARCH 28, to FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1809.

WESTMINSTER, MARCH 20, 1809.

This day the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molineux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of his Majesty's Commission for declaring his Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read, and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to continue so much of an Act of the 47th year of his present Majesty, as allows a bounty upon double refined sugar exported, until the 25th day of March 1811, and so much of the same Act as allows a bounty on raw sugar exported, until the 25th day of March 1810.

An Act for further continuing, until the 25th day of March 1810, certain bounties and drawbacks on the exportation of sugar from Great Britain, and for suspending the countervailing duties and bounties on sugar, when the duties imposed by an Act of the 46th year of his present Majesty shall be suspended.

An Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters.

An Act to indemnify such persons in the united kingdom as have omitted to qualify themselves for offices and employments, and for extending the times limited for those purposes respectively until the 25th day of March 1810, and to permit such persons in Great Britain as have omitted to make and file affidavits of the execution of indentures of clerks to attorneys and solicitors to make and file the same, on or before the first day of Hilary Term 1810.

An Act for the more effectually preventing the forging of bank notes, bank bills of exchange, and bank post bills, and the negotiation of forged and counterfeited bank notes, bank bills of exchange, and bank post bills, of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland.

An Act for repealing an Act of the Parliament of Scotland relative to child murder, and for making other provisions in lieu thereof.
And two private Acts.

MARCH 24, 1809.

An Act for granting annuities to discharge certain Exchequer bills.

An Act for the regulation of his Majesty's royal marine forces while on shore.

An Act for allowing the importation and exportation of certain goods and commodities into and from the port of Falmouth, in the island of Jamaica.

An Act to allow the importation of rum and other spirits from the island of Bermuda into the province of Lower Canada, without payment of duty, on the same terms and conditions as such importation may be made directly from his Majesty's sugar colonies in the West Indies.

An Act to authorize his Majesty, during the present war, to make regulations respecting the trade and commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope.

An Act for continuing, until the 25th day of March 1814, several Acts for the free importation of cochineal and indigo; and until the 25th day of March 1819, an Act of the 46th year of his present Majesty, to permit the exportation of wool from the British plantations in America.

An Act to make perpetual several laws relating to the encouragement of the silk manufacturers; to the allowing the importation of rape seed, and other seeds used for extracting oil, whenever the prices of middling British rape seed shall be above a certain limit; to the encouraging the growth of coffee in his Majesty's plantations in America; and for amending and making perpetual several laws relating to the preventing the clandestine running of goods, and the danger of infection thereby; and to the allowing the importation of seal-skins, cured with foreign salt, free of duty.

An Act for amending so much of an Act of the 41st year of his present Majesty, for building and keeping in repair the pier at Sheerness, in the isle of Sheppy, in the county of Kent, and for other purposes therein mentioned, as relates to the said pier.

An Act to continue the term and alter the powers of an Act of his present Majesty, for repairing the road from the township of Saltney, in the county of Flint, to the town of Flint.

An Act for making and maintaining a road from Horsham to join the turnpike-road leading to Guild-
