TO THE CREDITORS OF
EDWARD RODGERS, Merchant in Edinburgh, deceased.

A SEQUESTRATION of Mr Rodgers' estates was awarded in the year 1791, and John Steedman, merchant in Glasgow, chosen trustee thereon. The whole bankrupt funds having been recovered and divided among the creditors in the year 1792, no proceedings have since been held under the sequestration. Mr Rodgers, however, had an eventual right to some heritable subjects in the city of Edinburgh, in case he should survive his wife, without issue, which right he conveyed to the trustee. The event upon which the heritable property was to descend to the creditors having now taken place, by Mrs Rodgers' decease some months previous to her husband's and Mr Steedman, the trustee, being also dead, two of the creditors ranked under the sequestration have, in terms of the statute, in virtue of which it was awarded, applied to the Lord Ordinary on the bills to appoint a meeting of the creditors to elect a new trustee or trustees in succession, in place of Mr Steedman. Lord Cullen, upon considering their petition, has appointed the whole creditors of the said Edward Rodgers to meet within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 26th day of April current, at 12 o'clock noon, for that purpose. Of which appointment this notice is given to all having interest.
