NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JOHN DOUGLAS, Merchant, Dunfermline.

AT the meeting of the Creditors, held at Cupar on Wednesday 26th current, being the day immediately subsequent to the last examination of the bankrupt, he made an offer of a composition. April 28, 1809.

THE Trustee on the bankrupt estate of the late JOHN BAYNE, Cattle-dealer at Leadmachany and Culterheldich, begs leave to intimate to the Creditors, that he is prevented from making a dividend on the 1st of May, as formerly advertised, by reason of a large part of the sequestrated funds being arrested. But the necessary measures are adopted for getting the arremts immediately removed; and as soon as that takes place, the earliest notice will be given to the Creditors to receive payment of the dividend.

INTIMATION is hereby made to the Creditors of THOMAS SYM, Upholsterer in Glasgow, that the Sheriff of Lanark has fixed Thursday the 11th, and Thursday the 25th May next, at 1 o'clock each day, within the Sheriff-clerk's-office, Glasgow, for the examination of the bankrupt, and those acquainted with his business; and that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the office of Mr James Kerr, accountant, Glasgow, on Friday the 26th May, at 1 o'clock afternoon, to choose Commissioners, and otherwise follow out the Statute.

THAT the said John Richmond, at the statutory meeting of his Creditors, made offer of a composition of his debts, and a meeting called to decide thereon on the 18th of April; but, by his death, before the meeting, the offer could not be literally fulfilled. In order to give his friends an opportunity of implementing, or of making an offer similar to that formerly proposed, the Creditors adjourned at the meeting on the 18th, and appointed the Trustee to call another meeting, to decide on the offer, in case the bankrupt's relations are to make one. The Trustee now intimates, that the friends mean again to offer a composition to the same extent as formerly proposed, with caution, being 12s. 6d. per pound, payable by instalments, as offered by the bankrupt, on receiving an assignment from the Trustee. The Creditors are therefore requested to attend the adjourned meeting, to be held in the Merchants Hall, on 16th May, at 1 o'clock, to decide on that offer.
