ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

INTIMATION is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, by Miss ANNE PRESTON CAMPBELL of Lochlane and Fernton, that, under the authority of act passed in the present session of Parliament, for "empowering the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland to sell certain parts and portions of the entailed estate of Lochlane, situated in the county of Perth, which belonged to, and was entailed by, the late Anne Campbell, otherwise Menzies, of Fairtown, sufficient for payment of her debts, and to raise a sum for the purchase of other lands and hereditaments, contiguous to, and convenient for the said entailed estate, to be entailed in the like manner, in lieu of the parts and portions sold,"—a petition has been presented by the said Miss ANNE PRESTON CAMPBELL to the Lords of Council and Session, craving their Lordships to award the necessary steps for carrying the said act of Parliament into execution; upon considering of which petition, the First Division of said Court, by their interlocutor, dated 10th June 1809, appointed the same to be intimated, in manner therein mentioned, for the space of fourteen days, to the other heirs of entail of the said estate; and allowed them, and all others concerned, to answer or object to the said application, within ten days after the same should be served upon or intimated to them, in manner prescribed by said interlocutor, with certification; and upon these intimations being so made and published, the Court, by the said interlocutor, declared that they would resume consideration of the petition.

LONDON, JUNE 13, 1809.

AT A GENERAL MEETING of the SUBSCRIBERS to a FUND for erecting a NAVAL MONUMENT to perpetuate the Glorious Victories of the BRITISH NAVY, held this day at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, Strand, for the purpose of giving their sanction to a resolution of the committee, "That in their opinion (under the circumstance of the fund subscribed being inadequate to the object proposed by the subscribers) there is no objection to the treasurer returning the subscriptions received by him, to such persons respectively as have paid the same into his hands."

SIR ANDREW SNAPE HAMMOND, Bart. in the Chair.

IT WAS RESOLVED,

That this meeting do agree with the committee, that the subscriptions received for the purpose of erecting a Naval Pillar, may be returned to the several subscribers.

That it be referred to the committee out of the balance of interest which has accrued due upon the subscriptions in the hands of the treasurer, after paying all expences attending the design, to make such remuneration to the artists who have prepared plans for executing the object of this subscription, as it shall think proper.

That it appearing by the treasurer's accounts now produced that the amount of these subscriptions in his hands, with interest thereon, together with the subscriptions in the hands of the town and country banks, is totally inadequate to carry into effect the object proposed by the subscribers; that the principal amount of these subscriptions received by the treasurer be paid to the several persons respectively from whom he received the same; and that the several bankers in town and country, who have in their hands any moneys subscribed to the account of the fund for erecting the Naval Pillar, do forthwith give public notice that they will pay the same to the several persons whose subscriptions they have received; and if at the end of twelve months from this day, they should have any balance remaining in their hands on account of unclaimed subscriptions, they are to transmit an account thereof to the treasurer, that the same, together with any balance which may remain in the Treasurer's hands, may be appropriated to such purposes as shall be agreed to at a subsequent general meeting of the subscribers.

That the Bank of England, and the several other persons who have retained the amount of their subscription in their own hands, be authorized to pay the same back to themselves respectively.

That the Treasurer be requested to write to the Commanding Officers of the several regiments, and to the Captains of ships, who have paid their subscriptions on account of their respective regiments and ships companies, to know in what manner it is their wish that the said subscriptions should be appropriated.

That the thanks of this meeting be given to his Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, for his patronage and attention to the object of the subscribers.

That the thanks of this meeting be given to the Committee and Treasurer, for their attention to the object of the subscribers.

That this meeting do adjourn until the 14th of June, 1810, in order at that time to settle and determine on the propriety of paying over to the Treasurer of the Marine Society, the balances, if any, which shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer, or of any of the bankers in town or country, to be applied by him in aid of the fund of 300l. per annum, now paid in sums of 10l. each, to the Widows of Officers of the Royal Navy, or to such other fund or funds as the meeting shall think best entitled thereto.

Sir A. S. Hammond having left the chair, the Right Hon. Reginald Pole Carew was requested to take the same, whereupon

It was resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be given to Sir Andrew Snape Hammond, Bart. for his attention to the business of this day.

ST JAMES'S SQUARE, LONDON, JUNE 13, 1809.

MR ALEXANDER DAVIDSON, the Treasurer to the fund for erecting a NAVAL PILLAR, in pursuance of the resolutions of the general meeting of the Subscribers, held this day, at his request, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, takes this mode of acquainting all such persons whose subscriptions have been received by him, that they may receive back the same, on applying any morning after Tuesday next, the 20th instant, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock, at the office of Mr Leake, solicitor, No. 27, Sackville Street, London.
