NOTICE.

COLONIAL STOCK ACTS—1877 TO 1948.

ADDITION TO LIST OF STOCKS UNDER SECTION 2 OF THE COLONIAL STOCK ACT, 1900 (63 AND 64 VIC., CAP. 62).

Pursuant to Section 2 of the Colonial Stock Act, 1900, the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury hereby give notice that the provisions of the Act have been complied with in respect of the under-mentioned Stock registered in the United Kingdom :—

British Guiana $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Inscribed Stock, 1966-1968.

The restrictions mentioned in Section 2, Sub-section (1) of the Trustee Act, 1925, apply to the above Stock (see Colonial Stock Act, 1900, Section 2).

Civil Service Commission,

25th September 1951.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

RECRUITMENT OF (A) H.M. INSPECTOR OF TAXES IN THE INLAND REVENUE DEPARTMENT, (B) THE CADET GRADE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL SERVICE, (C) PROBATIONARY ASSISTANT POSTAL CONTROLLERS IN THE POST OFFICE, AND (D) JOINT INTELLIGENCE BUREAU OFFICER, GRADE III, MINISTRY OF DEFENCE.

1. There will be two methods of entry: Method I and Method II. Regulation 2 relates to Method I, and Regulations 3 and 4 to Method II; the remaining Regulations relate to both methods. No candidate may compete more than twice in all under Normal and Reconstruction Regulations; but if he competes under both Method I and Method II in the same year this will be treated as a single attempt.

METHOD I.

2. Examination.

- (i) The examination consists of the following:—
 (A) A written examination, comprising
 (a) three compulsory subjects, namely Essay, English, and Present Day, to each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted;
 (b) a selection from the optional subjects set out in the Appendix. Subject to the provisions in the Appendix, candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 500 marks (the marks awarded on these optional subjects will be adjusted to a maximum of 700 marks, making 1000 marks in all for the written examination).
 (B) An interview before the Final Interview Board, which will award a mark out of a maximum of 300 for the candidate's record, intelligence, and personal qualities.
 (ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the total marks gained in the whole examination. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates, the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful.

METHOD II.

3. Examination.

- (i) The examination consists of the following:—
 (A) A written examination consisting of two papers on English, two General Papers, and a test of General Intelligence, for each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted (making 500 marks in all).
 (B) A series of tests of personal qualities.
 (C) An interview before the Final Selection Board.
 (ii) The Commissioners will select in the light of the results of the written examination under (i) (A) and of the candidates' records those who will be admitted to the series of tests of personal qualities under (i) (B).
 (iii) The Commissioners will subsequently select in the light of the candidates' performances in the series of personal tests and of their records those who will be admitted to interview by the Final Selection Board.
 (iv) The final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded by the Final Selection Board out of a maximum of 300. This will take into account the candidate's record, intelligence, and personal qualities. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful. The Commissioners may at their discretion require a candidate to attend a second time before the Final Selection Board if they consider it necessary to enable them to reach a decision.
 (v) The Commissioners may, at their discretion, exempt from the written examination under (i) (A) any one who has previously been a candidate under Method II either for the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service or for the Special Departmental Classes and has been awarded a mark of more than 200 by the Final Selection Board, provided he applies for such exemption when making application for entry to the Competition.

4. Education.

- (i) Candidates must either (a) have obtained a degree at a recognized University, or (b) be in the last year of a course for a degree at a recognized University. In the latter case, they will not be declared successful unless they can produce evidence, not later than 1st September of the year in which they compete, that they have obtained the degree.
 (ii) A candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may be admitted to compete, notwithstanding that he fails to satisfy the requirements of sub-para. (i), if (a) he is in other respects eligible under these Regulations to compete; and (b) he is recommended to the Civil Service Commissioners by the appropriate Service Authority, as warranting consideration for appointment to the Special Departmental Classes by reason of his record, education, intelligence, and personal qualities.

METHODS I AND II.

5. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ years and under 24 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is held. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years;

(c) for Method II only, candidates who are 24 years and over but under 30 years of age on 1st August of the year in which the examination is held may at the Commissioners' discretion be admitted to the competition for posts in the Ministry of Labour and National Service, provided that they are in all other respects eligible under these Regulations, and that they have had experience in employment in industry or social work which particularly fits them for consideration for appointment to posts in the Ministry of Labour and National Service.

6. Sex.

Both men and women are eligible, except that posts of Probationary Assistant Postal Controller are open to men only.

7. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either
 (i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

8. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

9. Vacancies.

The number of vacancies to be filled from the competition as a whole, and the number to be filled by Method I and Method II respectively, will be determined by the Commissioners.

10. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

11. Assignment.

Persons who apply under these Regulations will be regarded as candidates for all the situations concerned for which they are eligible under these Regulations; they will, however, be required to state on their application forms their preferences between these situations. The Commissioners will decide to which Department each candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

A candidate cannot be considered for appointment as J.I.B. Officer, Grade III, in the Ministry of Defence, unless (a) as a Method I candidate he includes in his optional subjects one or more of the following:—(26) General Economics, (27) Industry and Trade, (30) Social Economics, (31) Economic History, (32) Economic Statistics, (43) and (44) Geology, (50) Geography, or (b) as a Method II candidate his degree is in economic subjects, geology, or geography.

12. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

13. Fees.

The fee payable by all candidates is 15s. for each Method. A candidate who applies to compete by both Methods must pay £1 10s. The appropriate fee must be sent with the application form.

(B) Interview, comprising

(a) a preliminary interview by one or more interviewers who will supply reports for the information of the Final Interview Board;

(b) an interview before the Final Interview Board, which will award a mark out of a maximum of 300 for the candidate's record, intelligence, and personal qualities.

(ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the total marks gained in the whole examination. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates, the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful. The Commissioners may at their discretion require a candidate to attend a second time before the Final Interview Board if they consider it necessary to enable them to reach a decision.

METHOD II.

3. Examination.

(i) The examination consists of the following:—

(A) A written examination consisting of two papers in English, two General Papers, and a test of General Intelligence, to each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted (making 500 marks in all).

(B) A series of tests of personal qualities.

(C) An interview before the Final Selection Board.

(ii) The Commissioners will select in the light of the results of the written examination under (i) (A) and of the candidates' records those who will be admitted to the series of tests of personal qualities under (i) (B).

(iii) The Commissioners will subsequently select in the light of the candidates' performances in the series of personal tests and of their records those who will be admitted to interview by the Final Selection Board.

(iv) The final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded by the Final Selection Board out of a maximum of 300. This will take into account the candidate's record, intelligence and personal qualities. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful. The Commissioners may at their discretion require a candidate to attend a second time before the Final Selection Board if they consider it necessary to enable them to reach a decision.

(v) The Commissioners may, at their discretion, exempt from the written examination under (i) (A) anyone who has previously been a candidate under Method II for the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service and been awarded a mark of more than 200 by the Final Selection Board, provided he applies for such exemption when making application for entry to the competition.

4. Education.

(i) Candidates must either (a) have obtained at least second class honours in a full honours degree examination at a recognized University, or (b) be in the last year of a course for a full honours degree at a recognized University. In the latter case, they will not be declared successful unless they can produce evidence, not later than 1st September of the year in which they compete, that they have obtained at least second class honours in their degree examination.

(ii) A candidate who has served or is serving in a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may be admitted to compete, notwithstanding that he fails to satisfy the requirements of sub-para. (i), if (a) he is in other respects eligible under these Regulations to complete, and (b) he is recommended to the Civil Service Commissioners by the appropriate Service Authority, as warranting consideration for appointment to the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service by reason of his record, education, intelligence, and personal qualities.

METHODS I AND II.

5. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ years and under 24 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is held. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

6. Sex.

Both men and women are eligible, but women will not ordinarily be appointed to posts in the Ministry of Defence, Admiralty, War Office, or Air Ministry.

7. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either (i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

8. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

9. Vacancies.

The number of vacancies to be filled from the Competition as a whole, and the number to be filled by Method I and Method II respectively, will be determined by the Commissioners.

10. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

11. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

12. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

13. Fees.

The fee payable by all candidates is £1 10s. for each Method. A candidate who applies to compete by both Methods must pay £3. The appropriate fee must be sent with the Application Form.

2. Candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 700 marks. A candidate who wishes to offer subjects the aggregate value of which exceeds 700 marks must name a subject to be valued on a reduced maximum in order to bring the aggregate to 700. This option cannot be exercised by a candidate who can reduce his aggregate to 700 by omitting one or more of the subjects he proposes to offer.

3. The following restrictions apply to particular optional subjects.

(a) International Relations (25) may not be taken by a candidate who offers European History, Period 3 (8), or International Law (14).

(b) Greek Literature (60) may be taken only by candidates who offer Greek Translation (57), and Latin Literature (64) only by those who offer Latin Translation (61).

(c) In subjects 68 to 78 the history or literature paper associated with a language may be taken only by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.

(d) A candidate who offers one or more of the subjects French History (68), German History (71), Spanish or Italian History (74), Russian History (77), may not offer either subject 7 (European History, Period 1 or Period 2), or subject 8 (European History, Period 3).

4. A candidate desiring to offer Experimental Psychology (22) or any of the subjects 37 to 48 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training of University standard. For Astronomy (36), Engineering (49), Geography (50), and the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (52), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination under Method I being held in July 1952, and that under Method II in January 1952.

No person will be admitted to the competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 30th November 1951, for candidates competing under Method II or 28th February 1952 for candidates competing under Method I, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

*Civil Service Commission,
25th September 1951.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :-

RECRUITMENT TO THE SENIOR BRANCH OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.

1. No candidate may compete more than twice in all under Normal and Reconstruction Regulations.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ years and under 24 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is held. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

3. Marriage.

Both men and women may compete under these Regulations. But

(a) every woman candidate must be unmarried or a widow;

(b) women will normally be required to resign their appointments on marriage, but in exceptional cases they may be retained with the permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The approval of the Secretary of State is required before a successful male candidate who is married takes up appointment.

4. Nationality.

(1) Every candidate must

(a) be a natural-born British subject; and

(b) have been born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions of parents both of whom were also born within the United Kingdom or within one of the self-governing Dominions.

(2) No departure from this rule will be made without the special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and then only in exceptional cases and in favour of candidates who are British subjects and who also satisfy one of the following conditions :-

(a) if natural-born British subjects, they must either (i) have at least one parent who is, or was at death, a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this sub-paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions, either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Education.

(i) Candidates must either (a) have obtained at least second class honours in a full honours degree examination at a recognized University, or (b) be in the last year of a full course for an honours degree at a recognized University. In the latter case, they will not be declared successful unless they can produce evidence, not later than 1st September of the year in which they compete, that they have obtained at least second class honours in their degree examination.

(ii) Candidates who are unable to satisfy the provisions of sub-paragraph (i) may qualify if they take the written examination under Method I for the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service and reach in it a standard satisfactory to the Commissioners (see Appendix).

(iii) A candidate who has served, or is serving, on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in His Majesty's Forces may be admitted to compete, notwithstanding that he fails to satisfy either sub-paragraph (i) or sub-paragraph (ii) if (a) he is in other respects eligible under these Regulations to compete; and (b) he is recommended to the Civil Service Commissioners by the appropriate Service Authority as warranting consideration for appointment to the Senior Branch of the Foreign Service by reason of his record, education, intelligence, and personal qualities.

7. Examination.

(i) The examination consists of the following :—

(A) A written examination consisting of two papers in English, two General Papers, and a test of General Intelligence, for each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allocated (making 500 marks in all).

(B) A series of tests of personal qualities.

(C) An oral test in a foreign language approved by the Commissioners; but the Commissioners may dispense with this in the case of a candidate who satisfies them that he possesses adequate ability to speak a modern foreign language.

(D) An interview before the Final Selection Board.

(ii) The Commissioners will select in the light of the results of the written examination under (i) (A) and of the candidates' records those who will be admitted to the series of tests of personal qualities under (i) (B).

(iii) The Commissioners will subsequently select in the light of the candidates' performances in the series of personal tests and of their records those who will be admitted to interview by the Final Selection Board.

(iv) The final order of merit will be determined by the mark awarded by the Final Selection Board out of a maximum of 300. This will take into account the candidate's record, intelligence, personal qualities and language ability. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful. The Commissioners may at their discretion require a candidate to attend a second time before the Final Selection Board if they consider it necessary to enable them to reach a decision.

(v) The Commissioners may, at their discretion, exempt from the written examination under (i) (A) anyone who has previously been a candidate for the Senior Branch of the Foreign Service and has been awarded a mark of more than 200 by the Final Selection Board, provided he applies for such exemption when making application for entry to the competition.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

10. Fee.

A fee of £1 10s. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the Application Form.

For Astronomy (36), Engineering (49), Geography (50), and the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (52), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination being held in January 1952.

No person will be admitted to the competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received on or before the 30th November 1951, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

*Civil Service Commission,
25th September 1951.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

RECRUITMENT FROM UNIVERSITY GRADUATES TO THE EXECUTIVE CLASSES AND THE INFORMATION OFFICER CLASS OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE AND GRADE 5 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE.

1. No candidate may compete more than twice in the annual competitions for recruitment to the Executive Classes from University graduates.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20½ and under 24 years of age on the 1st August of the year in which the examination is held.

But a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

3. Sex.

(i) Both men and women are eligible, but women will not ordinarily be appointed to posts in the Admiralty, or to the Immigration Service of the Home Office.

(ii) Married women are not eligible for appointment to Branch B of the Foreign Service; a woman member of Branch B must resign her appointment on marriage.

4. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing, or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

For the Foreign Service every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, and have been born within the United Kingdom or one of the self-governing Dominions, of parents both of whom were also born within the United Kingdom or one of the self-governing Dominions.

No departure from this rule will be made without the special permission of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and then only in exceptional cases, and in favour of candidates who satisfy the conditions laid down above for the Home Civil Service.

5. Education.

Candidates must either (a) have obtained a degree at a recognized University, or (b) be in the last year of a course for a degree at a recognized University. In the latter case, they will not be declared successful unless they can produce evidence, not later than 1st September of the year in which they compete, that they have obtained their degree.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Examination.

(i) The examination consists of the following:—

(A) A written examination comprising

(a) three compulsory subjects, namely Essay, English, and Present Day, for each of which a maximum of 100 marks is allotted, and

(b) a selection from the optional subjects set out in the Appendix. Subject to the provisions in the Appendix, candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 500 marks (the marks awarded on these optional subjects will be adjusted to a maximum of 700 marks, making 1000 marks in all for the written examination).

(B) An interview before the Final Interview Board, which will award a mark out of a maximum of 300 for the candidate's record, intelligence, and personal qualities.

(ii) The final order of merit will be determined by the total marks gained in the whole examination. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates, the Commissioners will decide which to declare successful.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

In order to be eligible for assignment to Branch B of the Foreign Service candidates will be required to satisfy the Final Interview Board that they have the ability to learn languages.

10. Fee.

(a) A fee of 15s. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the Application Form.

(b) Candidates who have entered for the Special Departmental Classes by Method I in the concurrent Open Competition and have paid the prescribed fee, may enter for this Competition without further fee.

2. Candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 500 marks. A candidate who wishes to offer subjects the aggregate value of which exceeds 500 marks must name a subject to be valued on a reduced maximum in order to bring the aggregate to 500. This option cannot be exercised by a candidate who can reduce his aggregate to 500 by omitting one or more of the subjects he proposes to offer.

3. The following restrictions apply to particular optional subjects.

(a) International Relations (25) may not be taken by a candidate who offers European History, Period 3 (8), or International Law (14).

(b) Greek Literature (60) may be taken only by candidates who offer Greek Translation (57), and Latin Literature (64) only by those who offer Latin Translation (61).

(c) A candidate who offers one or more of the subjects French History (68), German History (71), Spanish or Italian History (74), Russian History (77), may not offer either subject 7 (European History, Period 1 or Period 2), or subject 8 (European History, Period 3).

4. A candidate desiring to offer Experimental Psychology (22) or any of the subjects 37 to 48 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training of University standard. For Astronomy (36), Engineering (49), Geography (50), and the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (52), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination of which will be in July 1952.

No person will be admitted to the competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 28th February 1952, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission,
25th September 1951.

The Civil Service Commissioners give notice, in pursuance of Clause 13 of the General Regulations made under the Order in Council of the 22nd July 1920, that with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury they have prescribed as follows:—

(1) Candidates applying to compete in an Open Competition for the Administrative Class of the Northern Ireland Civil Service shall pay on application a fee of £1 10s. if they are competing by Method I or Method II, or £3 if they are competing by both Methods.

(2) Candidates who have applied to compete in an Open Competition for the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service and have paid the prescribed fee shall be admitted without further fee to compete by the same Method or Methods in a concurrent competition for the Administrative Class of the Northern Ireland Civil Service.

(3) Candidates who have applied to compete in an Open Competition for the Administrative Class of the Home Civil Service or the Administrative Class of the Northern Ireland Civil Service, and have paid the prescribed fee, shall be admitted to concurrent competitions by the same Method or Methods for either or both of the following without further fee:—

- (a) Statistician Class.
- (b) Special Departmental Classes.

(4) Candidates who have applied to compete in an Open Competition for the Special Departmental Classes by Method I, and have paid the prescribed fee, shall be admitted without further fee to a concurrent competition for appointment to the Executive Class (and corresponding Departmental Classes) and the Information Officer Class of the Home Civil Service and to Grade 5 posts in Branch B of the Foreign Service.
