

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24, to FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1809.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of October 1809,

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered, by his Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the 2d day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the 5th day of December next.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of October 1809,

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable William Wellesley Pole was, by his Majesty's command, sworn of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the board accordingly.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of October 1809,

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, in Council, that in his Majesty's order in Council of the 5th of April 1805, appointing the places for the performance of quarantine by ships and vessels bound to the several ports of this kingdom, Highlake, near Liverpool, is prescribed as the place for the performance of quarantine by vessels arriving at the port of Liverpool, liable thereto; but that Bromborough Pool has been found, on a careful inquiry recently made, to be a safer and more convenient place for the performance thereof; his Majesty is therefore pleased, with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all such ships or vessels as are or shall be bound to the port of Liverpool, or any creek or place belonging to or within the said port, from any place or places from whence quarantine is required to be performed, shall in future perform their quarantine in Bromborough Pool, instead of Highlake: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. FAWKENER.

QUEEN'S PALACE, OCTOBER 18, 1809.

The following address having been transmitted to the Earl of Liverpool, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

We your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the ministers and elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, met at Aberdeen, this 11th day of October 1809, participating in that joy, which universally prevails in your dominions, on the approaching anniversary of your accession to the throne, beg leave, with all humility and respect, to express to your Majesty, the sense which we entertain of the divine goodness, in having blessed these realms with your Majesty's mild and equitable government for near half a century.

Whether we contrast the instability of other thrones, with the firm basis on which that of your Majesty is placed; whether we look abroad to the misery of the surrounding nations, or at home to the happiness of our own; whether we contemplate the comforts enjoyed by all classes of your Majesty's subjects in this favoured land, or reflect on the encouragement afforded to religion in general, by your Majesty's example and influence, and the support experienced by our own ecclesiastical establishment in particular; our hearts are filled with the most lively sentiments of gratitude and attachment: and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we will continue to maintain and advance the interests of religion, and to inculcate on the people committed to our care, that righteousness which exalteth a nation, and to guard them against that sin, which is the reproach, and must be the ruin of any people.

That your Majesty may long sway the sceptre of this kingdom; that under the weight of declining years, you may be solaced by the love and veneration of your subjects, and the duty and affection of your family; and that when you shall be called upon to resign your earthly crown, a heavenly crown may be the reward of your piety, and many other exalted virtues, is the prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the ministers and elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, and subscribed in our name and presence, and by our appointment, by

GAVIN MITCHELL, Moderator.
