PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has, in pursuance of the powers competent to him under Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict., c. 68), made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor dated 14th July 1952 pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Perth and Angus at Perth, finding that (1) the Churchyard or Burial Ground known as the Old Churchyard in the Village and Parish of Methven, and (2) the Churchyard or Burial Ground known as Arngask in the Village of Glenfarg and Parish of Arngask, both in the County of Perth, are both in a condition which is dangerous to health and are overcrowded:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that, in terms of Section 5 of the said Act burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Grounds subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 21st day of October 1952, Notice of such Representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 12th day of December 1952, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order or Notice should be fixed on the doors of the churches of or on some other conspicuous places within the Parishes of Methven and Arngask one month before the said 12th day of December 1952:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. That, in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, burials be forthwith discontinued in the Churchyards or Burial Grounds known as the Old Churchyard in the Village and Parish of Methven and the Churchyard and Burial Ground known as Arngask in the Village of Glenfarg and Parish of Arngask both in the County of Perth except for the burial of:—

(2) a parent in that Burial Ground in which his or her child or children were buried prior to the date of closure;

(3) an unmarried person in that Burial Ground in which one or both of his or her parents or one or more brothers or sisters of his or hers are buried prior to the date of closure;

(4) any person whom the County Council of Perth may specially authorize to be buried in one or other of the said Burial Grounds;

(5) cremated human remains:

Provided that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to health or offensive or contrary to decency;

that intimation of a burial be given to the Sanitary Inspector for the County of Perth not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened; that no burial except the burial of cremated human remains shall be made unless there is a lair in the family ground available for use at the time required; unless the grave is at least 5 feet deep and burial can be made without interference with the remains of a previous burial; and unless it is at least 20 years since the immediate preceding burial in the same lair.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Scotland) (Parish of Methven Old Churchyard and Parish of Arngask (Glenfarg) Churchyard) Order, 1952.
