At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February 1953

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has in pursuance of the powers competent to him under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict., c. 68), made a representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor dated 13th May 1947, pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Inverness, Moray, Nairn, and Ross and Cromarty, at Lochmaddy, finding that the Burial Ground at Clachan Sand, North Uist, in the County of Inverness, is in such a condition as to be injurious and dangerous to health and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that in terms of Section 5 of the said Act, burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 25th day of November 1952, notice of such representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 15th day of January 1953, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be fixed on the doors of the churches of, or on some other conspicuous places within the Parish of Clachan Sand one month before the said 15th day of January 1953:

And whereas Notice of the said representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. That in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, burials be forthwith discontinued in the Burial Ground at Clachan Sand, North Uist, in the County of Inverness, except for the burial of:—

- (1) any person whom the County Council of Inverness may specially authorise to be buried in the said Burial Ground;
- (2) cremated human remains;

Provided that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to health or offensive or contrary to decency; that intimation of a burial be given to the District Sanitary Inspector of the County of Inverness not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened; that no burial except the burial of cremated human remains shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper surface of the coffin, and that without interference with the remains of a previous burial.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Scotland) (Parish of Clachan Sand Old Burial Ground) Order, 1953.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February 1953

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has in pursuance of the powers competent to him under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict., c. 68), made a representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor dated 13th May 1947, pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Inverness, Moray, Nairn, and Ross and Cromarty, at Lochmaddy, finding that the Burial Ground known as the Old Burial Ground, Kilmuir, North Uist, in the County of Inverness, is in such a condition as to be injurious and dangerous to health and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said representation it is recommended that in terms of Section 5 of the said Act, burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 25th day of November 1952, notice of such representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 15th day of January 1953, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be fixed on the doors of the churches of, or on some other conspicuous places within the Parish of Kilmuir one month before the said 15th day of January 1953:

And whereas Notice of the said representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. That in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, burials be forthwith discontinued in the Burial Ground known as the Old Burial Ground, Kilmuir, North Uist, in the County of Inverness, except for the burial of:—

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Scotland) (Parish of Kilmuir Old Burial Ground) Order, 1953.

W. G. AGNEW.

The Secretary of State for Scotland, in exercise of his powers under the Destructive Insects and Pests Acts, 1877 to 1927, has made The Sale of Diseased Plants (Scotland) (Amendment) Order, 1953, which came into operation on 5th February.

This Order extends to tulips, hyacinths, gladioli, irises, and crocuses the provisions of the Sale of Diseased Plants (Scotland) Orders of 1936 to 1944, which prohibit the sale for planting of any plants substantially affected by pests or diseases, authorise Inspectors to enter premises and examine plants under the Orders and provide for the service of notices ordering the destruction or treatment of affected plants.

IMPORTATION OF PLANTS

The Secretary of State for Scotland has made The Importation of Plants (Scotland) Amendment Order, 1953, which came into operation on 5th February 1953.

This Order provides for the amendment of the form of certificate of health accompanying living plants landed in Scotland from abroad consequent upon the alteration, by the Importation of Forest Trees (Prohibition) Order, 1952, of the kinds of trees which may not be imported except under licence, viz. (a) from any European country, any plants of the genera Castanea, Populus, or Quercus, or of the genera of the Order Pinaceae, viz. Abies, Larix, Picea, Pinus, Pseudotsuga, Sequoia, Thuja, and Tsuga; (b) from any country outside Europe, any plants of the genera listed above, with the addition of any plants of the genus Ulmus.

MARKING OF IMPORTED WOODEN DOWELS AND DOWELLING

In accordance with the provisions of Sub-section 4 of Section 2 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, the Board of Trade announce that in pursuance of an application received by them for the making of an Order in Council to require imported goods of certain classes and descriptions to bear an indication of origin they have made a reference to the Standing Committee appointed by the Board of Trade under the Act in respect of the following classes and descriptions of imported goods:—

Wooden dowels and dowelling, including cylindrical pieces of timber, grooved or otherwise, not exceeding 10 feet in length and not exceeding one inch in diameter, howsoever described or for whatsoever purpose to be used.

Attention is called to the fact that, whilst, under the provisions of the Act, the Committee must in every case referred to them consider whether the goods should bear an indication of origin at the time of sale or exposure for sale, they have discretion also to consider and report whether such goods should bear an indication of origin at the time of importation.

Representatives of any interests substantially affected by the application who desire to be heard in opposition at the public inquiry, which will be held later by the Committee, should write to the Secretary, Merchandise Marks Committee, Board of Trade, Horse Guards Avenue, London, S.W.1, as soon as possible and not later than March 31, 1953.

Civil Service Commission,
17th February 1953.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF MALE POSTAL AND TELEGRAPH OFFICER IN THE POST OFFICE.

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 18 years of age on 1st March 1953.

2. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either (i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's Dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's Dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's Dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

3. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character. They must be at least 5 feet in height.

4. Examination.

The subjects of examination and the marks they will carry are as follows:—

(1) Arithmetic	100
(2) Spelling	25
(3) English	100
(4) General Paper	100

Separate competitions will be held for each Head Post Office, and candidates for each town will be arranged in order of merit on their aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole. No candidate may compete for a vacancy in more than one town at the same time, but if after the results of the examination have been published the number of qualified candidates for any town is insufficient to fill the vacancies in that town appointments may be offered, in order of their total marks, to candidates who have been unsuccessful for appointments in other towns in the same Post Office Region. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not obtain an aggregate which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central educ-tion authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

6. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 7s. 6d., being the balance of the prescribed fee of 15s., must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that concurrent Open Competitions will be held under the above Regulations commencing on 7th May 1953, to fill vacancies in the London Area and in certain Provincial Towns.

No person will be admitted to the Competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before 19th March 1953, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission,
17th February 1953.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF FEMALE POSTAL AND TELEGRAPH OFFICER IN THE POST OFFICE.

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT
TRUNK ROADS ACT, 1946
SPECIAL ROADS ACT, 1949

The Minister of Transport hereby gives notice that he has made an Order under Section 1 of the Trunk Roads Act, 1946, as extended by Section 14 of the Special Roads Act, 1949, the effect of which is that a by-pass which he proposes to construct at Canonbie in the County of Dumfries will become a trunk road on the date when the Order comes into operation and the length of the Edinburgh-Carlisle Trunk Road to be superseded thereby will cease to be a trunk road on the sixteenth day of May next after the date on which notice is given by the Minister to the Dumfries County Council (who will thereafter become the highway authority responsible for that road) that the by-pass is opened for through traffic.

Copies of the Order, the title of which is "The Edinburgh-Carlisle Trunk Road (Canonbie By-Pass) Order, 1953," can be purchased, price 2d., either through any bookseller or direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office at 13A Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2.

Copies of the Order and of the relative Plan have been deposited at the Ministry of Transport, Berkeley Square House, London, W.1, and at the offices of the Dumfries County Council, County Buildings, Dumfries, and may be seen at all reasonable hours.

Any person aggrieved by the Order and desiring to question the validity thereof, or of any provision contained therein, on the grounds that it is not within the powers of the Trunk Roads Act, 1946, as amended by the Special Roads Act, 1949, or on the ground that any requirement of the Trunk Roads Act, 1946, as so amended, has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may, within six weeks of the 20th day of February 1953, apply to the Court of Session for the suspension or quashing of the Order or of any provision contained therein.

N. PROCTOR-GREGG,

An Assistant Secretary of the Ministry of Transport.
