To his Majesty, the KING.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's very faithful subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Paisley, feel it a duty incumbent upon us, at this singular æra of your Majesty's reign, to transmit to your Majesty the most cordial assurance of our sincere regard for your Majesty's person and family, and undiminished attachment to the government over which your Majesty has so long and so honourably presided.

Price Sixpence Halfpenny.

While we have endeavoured to commemorate in a suitable and becoming manner, the happy return of the fiftieth anniversary of your Majesty's accession to the throne, we have contemplated with supreme satisfaction the accounts of the ardour and felicity with which this fortuitous event has been celebrated in every corner of the land. Such demonstration affords the truest criterion of the worth and high estimation of the sovereign, and of the loyalty and patriotism of the subjects; and as we fervently pray that your Majesty's valuable life may be prolonged, we remain assured that your Majesty will, as in times past, prove the pattern of public and domestic virtue, the defender of our religion, the guardian of our envied constitution, and the monarch of a free, loyal, and happy people.

WM. JAMIESON, Chief Magistrate.

We most earnestly implore the King of Kings, that in the full enjoyment of the comforts of this world, your Majesty may ever, as now, reign in the hearts of a loyal, a free, and an united people.

Signed at the desire of the meeting.

The humble address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and respectable Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Tain, convened the 25th October 1809.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Tain, humbly beg leave to approach your throne upon this auspicious day, to congratulate your Majesty upon your entering into the fiftieth year of your reign, and to express our just sense of the many blessings we do now and have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious government.

It is, under the divine providence, owing to your Majesty's just and wise administration, that while the other kingdoms and states of Europe are overturned, and their laws, religion, and liberties, trampled upon by the most despotic tyrant that the Almighty ever permitted, as a sovereign, upon the earth; your Majesty not only stands up the acknowledged grand and gracious protector of the liberties of mankind; but that we, and all your Majesty's subjects of these happy isles, enjoy, unimpaired, our religion, our laws, and liberties.

Blessed, therefore, above all the other nations of the earth, under such a sovereign, we not only in the most dutiful and loyal manner congratulate your Majesty upon your entering into the
