Candidates may take optional subjects up to a total of 500 marks. A candidate who wishes to offer subjects the aggregate value of which exceeds 500 marks must name a subject to be marked on a reduced maximum in order to bring the aggregate to 500. This option cannot be exercised by a candidate who can reduce his aggregate to 500 by omitting one or more of the subjects he proposes to offer.

3. The following restrictions apply to particular optional subjects:—

(a) Industry and Trade (31), Money, Banking, and Exchange (32), Public Finance (33), Social Economics (34), may be taken only by candidates who offer General Economics (30) or any two of the following: History of Political Thought (25), Political Theory (26), Political Organisation (27), Modern British Government (28).

(b) International Relations (29), may not be taken by a candidate who offers European History, Period III (8) or International Law (17).

(c) Subjects 44-54

(i) Natural Science (Essay Paper) (44) may be taken only by candidates who offer one or more of the subjects 45-54.

(ii) Candidates may not offer more than three of the subjects Chemistry, Part I (45), Physics, Part I (47), Botany, Part I (49), Geology, Part I (51), Zoology, Part I (53).

(d) Candidates may not offer more than two of the three periods of English Literature (63-65).

(e) Greek Literature (72) may be taken only by candidates who offer Greek Translation (69), and Latin Literature (76) only by those who offer Latin Translation (73).

(f) Candidates will not be permitted to offer subjects totalling more than 400 marks in either language or literature. English Literature, Latin, and Greek come under this rule as well as modern foreign languages. Thus no candidate may offer French Language, German Language, and Spanish Language, or French Civilisation, German Civilisation, and English Literature. The papers on the History of the French Language, the History of the German Language, Old English, Middle English, and English Criticism, do not come within the scope of this restriction.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination under Method I commencing on 1st July 1955, and that under Method II on 4th January 1955.

No person will be admitted to the Competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before 30th November 1954, for candidates competing under Method II or 28th February 1955, for candidates competing under Method I, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
