SECOND NOTICE TO THE CREDITORS OF

MISS ANNE STEWART of Stewartfield, in the County of Edinburgh, in terms of the Act of Sederunt of the Court of Session, of the 11th July 1794.

THAT Lord ROBERTSON, Ordinary, in the Action of Ranking and Sale, at the instance of EDMUND FERGUSON of Baledmund, Esquire, against the said Miss Anne Stewart and her Creditors, did, by his Lordship's interlocutor of the 26th November 1808, and 24th November 1809, sustain the libel, and find it relevant for the pursuer to prove scripto that the common debtor is bankrupt, and the Creditors in possession; and the manner of holding the lands and others libelled, and what feu and other duties, minister's stipend, schoolmaster's salaries, and other burdens, do affect the same, and are payable forth thereof; and likewise found it relevant for the pursuer to prove, prout de jure, the rental of the lands and others libelled, and worth and value of the property thereof, and at how many years purchase the same may be sold; and granted a commission for taking a proof of the rental, within the period therein expressed, to be reported to the Court; and granted diligence, and assigned the same day for the pursuers proving the whole other points thereby admitted to probation; and granted diligence against havers and witnesses to that effect; as also against havers, for recovering the writs and evidents of the lands and others libelled; and nominated Lord Meadowbank, of course, to be Ordinary to the ranking of the Creditors; and assigned a day to the whole Creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, which were competent to them respectively against the bankrupt, or are now competent against her estate, with certification, as in a reduction and improbation; and ordained the interlocutor assigning the first term for production to be inserted in the newspaper called the Edinburgh Gazette once every week, for three weeks successively, immediately after the said interlocutor, to the end it might come to the knowledge of all parties concerned; and assigned the same day to the Creditors to depone on the verity of their debts; and granted commission to the Sheriff-depute or substitute of the shire, or any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the bounds, or to the clerk of process, (P. M. M.), or his assistant; with certification that no creditor will be ranked until he shall have made oath to the verity of his debt; and, by his Lordship's other interlocutor before mentioned, of the 24th November last, 1809, his Lordship renewed the act and commission and order for proving the several points, and for the purposes herein before mentioned; and, of new, granted diligence.

THIRD INTIMATION—SECOND TERM.

THAT in the process of Ranking and Sale, raised and pursued before the Court of Session, at the instance of ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL, Esq, merchant in Greenock, against ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, lately Lieutenant, now Captain in the 2d regiment of Dragoons, or Royal Scots Greys, and his tutors and curators, as representing the deceased Colin Campbell, sometime tacksman of Auchnacroish, in the island of Mull, and all others who are, or pretend to be Creditors, heirs of entail, and legatees, of the said deceased Colin Campbell, Lord Glenlee, by an interlocutor, of this date, assigned the third sederunt-day in February next, to the whole Creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, competent to them respectively, against the bankrupt or his estate, with the whole vouchers and instructions thereof, with certification, that what writs shall not be produced, shall be held as false and forged, &c.: Ordained intimation thereof to be made to all parties concerned in the Edinburgh Gazette, weekly, for three weeks successively, after the date thereof. In obedience whereunto, this notice is given, and the Creditors are requested to lodge their grounds of debt, in the hands of Mr Jeffray, depute-clerk of Session, and clerk to the said process.

Edinburgh, December 20, 1809.

TO THE CREDITORS OF JAMES WALLACE, Merchant in Greenock.

THE composition offered by the said James Wallace having been accepted of by more than nine-tenths of the Creditors, both in number and value, application has been made to the Court of Session for having the same approved of; the sequestration recalled, and the Trustee exonerated.—Of which this intimation is given, in terms of the interlocutor of the Lord BANNATYNE, Ordinary on the Bills.

Edinburgh, January 6, 1810.
