

NOTES:—

1. Where no charge is stated in column 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 in relation to a particular country, the particular service or facility is not provided in relation to calls to that country.

2. This is a booking charge in respect of an application for a call to a specified name and address for the specified purpose of communication with any telephone number at that address (not being a call of the kind mentioned in column 3, 5 or 6).

3. This is a booking charge in respect of an application for a call to a specified telephone number or to a specified name and address (or to one of two specified alternative numbers or addresses) for the specified purpose of communicating with a particular person (or to one of two alternative persons) identified by name or by such description as the Postmaster General may consider sufficient or for connection to a particular department, correspondence reference, code number or extension number.

4. This is a charge in respect of a request to the Postmaster General to obtain, by means of a telephone call to a country, information as to

(a) the telephone number of any person identified in such manner as the Postmaster General may consider sufficient) in that country, or

(b) the name and address of the person in whose name a telephone installation specified by number is rented or otherwise held in that country.

This charge is not payable if, when the request is made, a call is booked to the telephone number and the call is connected.

5. This is a booking charge in respect of an application for a call to be connected at a specified time (not being a call of the kind mentioned in column 3).

6. This is a booking charge in respect of an application for a call for the specified purpose of communication simultaneously between one or more telephone numbers in the United Kingdom and two or more telephone numbers in the same country overseas.

7. Except as otherwise stated in the Schedule, the charges specified therein are payable by virtue of the Telephone Regulations, 1954, for or in respect of the call or the application therefor.

Long Range Radiotelephone Service with Liners—
