SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

THAT, in the Process of Ranking and Sale, raised and pursued before the Court of Session, at the instance of FRANCIS FRASER, writer in Edinburgh, against AGNES MACKECHNIE, wife of John Paterson, late at Piershill-Barracks, as lawfully charged to enter heir to John Mackechnie, late student of medicine in Edinburgh, afterwards physician at Demerara, Lord ROBERTSON, Ordinary to the ranking, by an interlocutor of this date, assigned the 22d day of May next to the whole Creditors of the bankrupt to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, competent to them respectively against him or his estate, and whole vouchers thereof, and that for the second term; with certification, that such rights as shall not be produced shall be held as false and forged, so far as they may affect the bankrupt's estate, and the interests of the Creditors thereon, who have, or shall produce their rights and diligences affecting the same: and ordained intimation or notice thereof to be made to all parties concerned, by inserting the interlocutor in the Edinburgh Gazette, weekly, for three successive weeks, after the date of the interlocutor. And, agreeably thereto, this notice is given to the Creditors of the said John Mackechnie, requiring them to lodge their grounds of debt against him or his estate, in the hands of Mr. Rose, depute-clerk of Session, and clerk to the said process; with certification.

Edinburgh, February 23, 1810.

SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the process of Ranking and Sale, at the instance of JOHN BUCHAN, writer to the signet, against the heirs of the deceased DAVID CUNNINGHAM, late baker in Edinburgh, Lord CRAIG, Ordinary, by interlocutor signed on the 9th of March current, assigned the third sederunt-day of May next to the whole Creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences against the bankrupt, and vouchers thereof, and that for the second term; with certification, that what writs shall not be produced, shall be held as false and forged, so far as they may affect the bankrupt's estate, and the interest of the Creditors producing as said is.—Of all which this notice is given, in terms of the statute.

F. S. W. PRINGLE, Clerk.

NOTICE

TO THE HEIRS OF ENTAIL OF
The Estate of SKIRLING, and others.

SIR THOMAS GIBSON CARMICHAEL of Skirling, Baronet, heir of entail in possession of the estates of Skirling, Kirkurd, and others, lying in the shire of Peebles, and of the estate of Halls, lying in the shire of Edinburgh, under a deed of entail executed by the deceased John Earl of Hyndford, dated 19th March 1784, and registered in the register of tailzies the 18th, and in the books of Council and Session 31st January 1788, having presented a petition to Parliament, for leave to bring in a bill to enable him to sell part of the said entailed estate, in order to purchase the estate of Scotston, lying in the shire of Peebles, to be brought under the entail in room of the lands sold, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, by order, dated 27th February 1810, referred the consideration of the said petition to the Lord President, the Lord Justice-Clerk, and Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or any two of them, who were to summon all parties before them who may be concerned in the bill; and after hearing all the parties, and perusing the bill, are to report to the House of Lords the state of the case, with their opinion thereupon, under their hands, and to sign the said bill.

In consequence of which order, their Lordships have appointed all concerned to appear before them, on Thursday the 29th March 1810, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Lord President's house in George's Square, Edinburgh, in order to be heard upon the said bill.—Of which notice is hereby given.

Edinburgh, March 7, 1810.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

The late ARCHIBALD MALCOLM, Writer in Dumfries.

SECOND NOTICE—FIRST TERM.

IN the Process of Ranking and Sale, raised and pursued before the Lords of Council and Session, at the instance of Mrs. Lillias Malcolm, alias Adair, spouse to the Reverend Doctor William Adair, Rector of Fermoy in Ireland, and him for his interest, against Patrick Malcolm, formerly residing at Anderston at Glasgow, now abroad, only surviving son of the deceased Thomas Malcolm, writer in Dumfries, and as lawfully charged to enter heir to the said Archibald Malcolm, his grandfather, and the Creditors of the said Archibald Malcolm; the Lord MEADOWBANK, Ordinary, by an interlocutor dated 7th March 1810, assigned the third sederunt day of May next to the whole Creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, that were competent to them respectively against the said Archibald Malcolm, or that were, or are now, competent to them against his estate, and that for the first term; with certification, as in a reduction and improbation. Of which this notice is given to all concerned.

F. S. JEFFREY, Clerk.

March 12, 1810.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE NAPIER &amp; COMPANY, Merchants in Glasgow, and of George Napier, as an individual.

UPON the application of John McDougall, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee confirmed by the Court of Session on the sequestrated estate of the said George Napier and Company, and George Napier, as an individual, the Sheriff-substitute of Lanarkshire has fixed Thursday the 29th March current, and Friday the 13th day of April next, at 11 o'clock forenoon each day, within the court-hall of Glasgow, for the public examination of the bankrupt. The Trustee hereby intimates, that upon Saturday the 14th day of April next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, the meeting for choosing Commissioners, and giving him instructions, will be held within his counting-house.

The Creditors are requested to lodge, in the Trustee's hands, their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, at or previous to said meeting; and unless the said productions are made betwixt and the 21st day of November next, those neglecting shall receive no share of the first distribution of the funds.

Glasgow, March 16, 1810.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PLIMPTONS, GODDARD, &amp; CO. Merchants in Edinburgh, and John Plimpton, James Plimpton, and William Goddard, partners of said company, as individuals.

UPON the application of a Creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, did, upon the 17th day of March current, sequester the whole estates, heritable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to the said bankrupts; and appointed their Creditors to meet at Edinburgh, within the Merchants' Hall there, upon Friday the 23d day of March current, at one o'clock afternoon, to choose an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, upon Friday the 20th day of April next, to choose a Trustee.—Of which intimation is hereby given, in terms of the statute.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT M'KISSOCK, Cattle-Dealer in Mains of Machermore.

THAT in consequence of a resolution of the Creditors on this sequestrated estate, assembled, in terms of the statute, upon the 23d February last, the lease of that part of Mains of Machermore remaining unsequestered at the period of the sequestration, consisting of about 18 acres, will be exposed to public sale at Creetown, within the house of Alexander Ravenscroft, vintner, upon Friday 15th June next, at 12 o'clock noon, with warranty from fact and deed only; and at same time and place, the whole outstanding debts will be likewise put up in one lot. The articles of roup to be seen in the hands of William Thorburn, in Newton Stewart, or William Aitchison, writer, Ayr; and Robert M'Kissock will shew the lands to inquirers.

March 20, 1810.
