

Ministry of Works.

A general interest in architecture and the modern building industry is desirable. For one post candidates must be able to show evidence of a knowledge of British history and archaeology.

5. Selection.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Assignment.

Where a successful candidate is suitable for appointment to more than one Department the Commissioners will decide to which Department he is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the candidate's preference as stated on his application form will be taken into account as far as possible.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

10. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms will disqualify them for appointment.

11. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £2 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 28th May, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF DISTRICT (FOREST) OFFICERS UNDER THE FORESTRY COMMISSION.*1. Men only may compete.*2. Age.

Candidates must have been born on or before 1st July, 1936. There is no upper age limit, but in appointing persons in a permanent capacity Departments expect regular and effective service for a reasonable period, and the Commissioners will take this requirement into account.

3. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

- (a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—
- (i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

- (ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must have (a) a University degree in Forestry, or (b) a University Diploma in Forestry, or (c) a post-graduate degree in a Forestry subject.

Applications will be considered from candidates who are taking in the summer of 1957 final examinations necessary to qualify under (a), (b), or (c) above.

Candidates must hold a driving licence or obtain one within a reasonable time.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, recommendations from referees named by the candidates, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.
