Civil Service Commission,

25th June, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

RECRUITMENT TO THE BASIC GRADE OF LANDS OFFICERS.

1. Both men and women may compete under these Regulations, except that women will not be eligible for appointments under the Admiralty, Air Ministry or War Department.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 25 and under 35 years of age on 1st July, 1957. But

(1) Candidates who have served or are serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct from their actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st July, 1957.

(2) Candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they have spent in such service before 1st July, 1957.

(3) Candidates over the age of 34 will be admitted to the competition if they have served in Government Departments as temporary Lands Officers for at least two years continuously up to their date of application.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment (other than to a situation in the Admiralty, War Office, Air Ministry) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

STOPPING UP OF HIGHWAYS IN INVERKEITHING

THE Secretary of State for Scotland hereby gives notice that he proposes to make an Order under section 46 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, as read with the Transfer of Functions (Roads, Bridges and Ferries) Order, 1955 authorising the stopping up of a length of Spittalfield Road from the junction with Hillend Road to Gray Place.

Copies of the draft Order and relative plan may be inspected at the Scottish Home Department, Bankhead Avenue, Sighthill, Edinburgh, 11, the Fife County Council, County Buildings, Cupar or the Inverkeithing Town Council, Town House, Inverkeithing at all reasonable hours.

During three months from the 29th June, 1957 any person may by notice to the Secretary, Scottish Home Department, Bankhead Avenue, Edinburgh, 11, object to the making of the Order, quoting 723/72/1.

R. D. M. BELL, Assistant Secretary.

Scottish Home Department.

18th June, 1957.

CINEMATOGRAPHS AND CINEMATOGRAPH FILMS

THE Board of Trade give notice that the following Regulations have been made:—

The British Film Fund Agency Regulations, 1957 (S.I. 1957 No. 1956) Dated June 21, 1957. Price 3d. By Post 5d.

The British Film Fund Agency (Appointed Day) Order, 1957 (S.I. 1957 No. 1055 (C.8)) Dated June 21, 1957. Price 2d. By Post 4d.

The following Draft Regulations have been laid before

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Admiralty, War Office or Air Ministry unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War or the Secretary of State for Air, as the case may be.

4. Qualification.

All candidates should possess professional ability. Normally this should be supported by evidence of appropriate professional experience in private or outside practice or in the service of a Local Authority or Government Department. In all cases the candidate's professional ability will need to be effectively demonstrated within the period of probation (or corresponding period of trial).

Candidates must

(a) have achieved Corporate Membership of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors or of the Chartered Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute or of the Land Agents' Society or

(b) have passed a degree or other examinations necessary for attaining Corporate Membership of one of the above Institutions or

(c) have a degree in Estate Management—B.A. Cambridge or B.Sc. London or

(d) have a British degree in Agriculture. (For posts in the Department of Agriculture for Scotland).

For posts in the Department of Agriculture for Scotland, candidates must have practical knowledge and experience in Agriculture.

Candidates admitted under heads (b) or (c) will not have their appointments confirmed unless they attain corporate membership of one of the Institutions listed in (a) above within their probation period (or the corresponding period of trial).

5. Competition.

Those candidates who on the evidence of their application forms, and any further information which the Commissioners think necessary to obtain, are found to be prima facie eligible, will be summoned to a Selection Board. The Commissioners may, if they see fit, summon only those candidates who by reason of their experience and qualifications appear to be most suitable for appointment. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of experience and training, any recommendation from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service but the candidate's preference, as shown on his application form, will be taken into account as far as possible.

8. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

9. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

10. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named in their application forms will disqualify them for appointment.

11. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission,

25th June, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT TO THE CLERICAL CLASS OF THE HOME CIVIL SERVICE OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE SERVED ON REGULAR ENGAGEMENTS WITH H.M. FORCES.

1. No candidate may compete more than twice under these or similar Regulations.

2. Both men and women are eligible.

3. Age.

No age limits are prescribed.

4. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widowed or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

5. Service.

(i) All candidates must either

(a) have completed, or on 1st November of the year in which the examination is held be within one year of completing, a period of not less than three years' continuous whole-time service in H.M. Forces of which not less than one year must have been whole-time voluntary service entered into for a fixed period (including in the case of officers a permanent commission); or

(b) have contracted to complete a fixed period of whole-time voluntary service (including in the case of officers a permanent commission) which would have qualified under (a) and been invalidated out or prematurely released from service on other grounds before completing that period.

(ii) No candidate will be eligible whose whole-time service ceased more than two years before 1st November of the year in which the examination is held.

6. Sections.

Eligible candidates will be divided into two Sections according to the length of their whole-time service on the termination of such service or on 31st October, 1958, whichever is the earlier:

Section I for those whose total service amounts to, or will amount to, less than twelve years; and

Section II for those whose total service amounts to, or will amount to, twelve years or more.

7. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

8. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

9. Examination.

(i) The written examination will consist of papers in English and Arithmetic, a General Paper, and an Intelligence Test.

(ii) Vacancies will be allotted to Sections I and II in proportion to the number of candidates competing in each section, provided that if the number of candidates of acceptable standard in either section is insufficient the remaining vacancies may be transferred to candidates in the other section. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not obtain a total which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

10. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

11. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

12. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 12s. 6d., being the balance of the fee of £1, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations on 1st October, 1957.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 25th July, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, 25th June, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT TO GRADE 6 POSTS IN BRANCH B OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE OF MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE SERVED ON REGULAR ENGAGEMENTS WITH H.M. FORCES.

1. No candidate may compete more than twice under these or similar Regulations.

2. The competition is open to men and to unmarried women and widows. The approval of the Secretary of State is required before a successful man candidate who is married takes up appointment.

3. Age.

No age limits are prescribed.

4. Nationality.

A candidate will not be eligible for appointment unless at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and was born of parents each of whom is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times since birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, by special permission of the Secretary of State, be admitted to appointment if

(i) he has at all times since his birth been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic, and

(ii) his father is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth, and

(iii) he satisfies the Secretary of State that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

5. Service.

(i) All candidates must either

(a) have completed, or on 1st November of the year in which the examination is held be within one year of completing, a period of not less than three years' continuous whole-time service in H.M. Forces of which not less than one year must have been whole-time voluntary service entered into for a fixed period (including in the case of officers a permanent commission); or

(b) have contracted to complete a fixed period of whole-time voluntary service (including in the case of officers a permanent commission) which would have qualified under (a) and been invalidated out or prematurely released from service on other grounds before completing that period.

(ii) No candidate will be eligible whose whole-time service ceased more than two years before 1st November of the year in which the examination is held.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

7. Examination.

The written examination will consist of papers in English and Arithmetic, a General Paper, and an Intelligence Test.

Candidates will be arranged in order of merit on their total mark in the examination as a whole, but before any candidate can be appointed he or she will be required to establish, in a Foreign Office interview, that he or she has the ability to learn languages and is in other respects suitable for appointment to the Foreign Service. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not obtain a total which satisfies the Civil Service Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Fee.

An application fee of 7s. 6d. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form, and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of 12s. 6d., being the balance of the fee of £1, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations on 1st October, 1957.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 25th July, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
