Treasury Chambers, S.W.1.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under Section 5 of the Finance Act, 1957 entitled The Composite Goods (Appointed Day) Order, 1957.

This Order brings into operation the Second Schedule to the Finance Act, 1957 with effect from 1st September, 1957. It has been published as Statutory Instruments 1957, No. 1475 (C 15).

Copies may be purchased (price 2d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses:—

York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 423 Oxford Street, London, W.1; 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 109 St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast, or through any bookseller.

Treasury Chambers, S.W.1.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under Section 19 of, and the Second Schedule to, the Import Duties Act 1932, Section 11 of the Finance Act, 1951, and Section 1 of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939 viz.:—

The Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 13) Order 1957

The Import Duties (Drawback) (No. 5) Order, 1956, provided for the allowance of drawback of Customs duty paid on corks and wooden tops, when bottle stoppers incorporating both these articles were exported. The effect of the present Order is to extend that provision so as to enable drawback of customs duty paid on corks to be allowed also on the export of bottle stoppers comprising corks and non-wooden tops.

The Order comes into operation on the 23rd August, 1957, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1957, No. 1481.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses:—

York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 423 Oxford Street, London, W.1; 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 109 St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 23rd August, 1957, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £220,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 26th August, 1957, to Saturday, the 31st August, 1957, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part, and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday, 11.30 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

Civil Service Commission.

16th August, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF OFFICERS OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE IN THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE DEPARTMENT.

- Men only are eligible.
- No candidate may compete more than twice for the situation of Officer of Customs and Excise.
- Age.*
Candidates must be at least 19 and under 22 years of age on 1st September, 1957, but—
(a) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st September, 1957;

(b) a candidate who has served in any established post to which he was admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from his actual age any time not exceeding two years which he has spent in such service before 1st September, 1957.

4. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

- if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—
(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or
(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment;
- if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

6. Examination.

(a) Written examination:

	Maximum Marks
(1) English	200
(2) Elementary Mathematics	100
(3) General Paper 1	100
(4) General Paper 2	100
(5) General Paper 3	100
(b) Interview	300

The interview will be held after the written examination. Of the candidates who obtain the highest total of marks in the written examination a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, will be summoned to interview. The final order of merit will be determined by the total of the marks obtained in the written examination and in the interview. Candidates must obtain such a total of marks in the competition as a whole as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners. Even if there are unfilled vacancies, no candidate will be appointed who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g. the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

An application fee of 15s. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of £1 5s., being the balance of the fee of £2, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination commencing on 3rd December, 1957.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 26th September, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission,

16th August, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF ASSISTANT EXAMINERS IN THE BANKRUPTCY AND COMPANIES (OFFICIAL RECEIVERS) SERVICE OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

1. Both men and women are eligible.

2. Age.

Candidates must be at least 20 and under 28 years of age on 1st September, 1957. But a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age any period of such service rendered before 1st September, 1957.

3. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widowed or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

4. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment.

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners on their health and character.

6. Scheme of Examination.

Part I—Written Examination.

Use of English and legibility of handwriting will be taken into account throughout the examination.

(a) English—Candidates will be required to write an essay and to summarise a passage. Other questions will be set to test understanding and command of language.

Candidates will be expected to keep closely to the subject of the essay, to arrange their ideas in orderly fashion, and to work concisely; effective and exact expression will be rewarded. The summary will be marked for its accuracy and for the understanding and use of English which it shows. A limit may be set for the number of words which the summary should contain; to use more than the stated number will entail loss of marks. It is useful for candidates to have some idea of the number of words they are accustomed to write on an unruled foolscap page.

..... (250 marks)

(b) Book-keeping and Accounts, with special reference to partnerships and limited companies.

..... (200 marks)

(c) General Commercial Knowledge.

..... (100 marks)

(d) Commercial and Company Law, including the rights and duties of liquidators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, and trustees under deeds of arrangement; Income Tax law. This paper will be divided into three sections, and candidates will be obliged to answer some questions from each; they are advised to consult the published specimen question paper.

..... (200 marks)

Exemption from the written examination will be granted to those who by 19th September, 1957, have passed any of the following:—

The Intermediate Examination of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales or of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland or of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland or of the Association of Certified and Corporate Accountants or of the Society of Incorporated Accountants; the Final Examination of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries or of the Corporation of Secretaries.

Part II—Interview.

Of those who obtain the highest total of marks in the written examination, a certain number, to be determined by the Commissioners, together with those granted exemption from the written examination will be invited to an interview before a Selection Board. The Board will take into account the candidates' personal qualities and experience, their performance in the written examination or the nature of their exempting qualifications, and their technical knowledge as shown at the interview. The Board will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment those candidates who appear to them to be most suitable; even if there are unfilled vacancies no candidate will be recommended who does not reach a standard which satisfies the Commissioners. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

An application fee of 15s. is payable by all candidates. This must be sent with the application form and is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of £1 5s., being the balance of the fee of £2, must be paid by each candidate on admission to the examination. (Candidates exempted from the written examination must pay the further fee of £1 5s. when called upon to do so).

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations the written examination commencing on 14th November, 1957.

Applications on the prescribed form for admission to the Competition should be received by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission on or before 19th September, 1957. Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
