

not less than 22 years service or 15 years service of which the last 10 years should have been continuous, may be awarded a resettlement grant in addition to his pension under the following terms:—

- (a) The rate of grant will in all cases be £250.
- (b) A R.N. rating or Royal Marine can qualify only once for a grant.
- (c) The grant will not be payable in addition to the special capital payment under Section III.
- (d) The grant will be free of Income Tax.
- (e) The grant will not be payable to any R.N. rating or Royal Marine who has left or shall leave the Royal Navy voluntarily for his own reasons, compassionate or otherwise nor to any who is compulsorily discharged for misconduct or inefficiency unless when the causes are not within his own control he has completed 15 years' reckonable service.

"SCHEDULE III.

"Pensions for Widows and Children of Regular Naval and Marine Officers, Temporary Branch Officers, Regular Long Service Ratings and Royal Marine Other Ranks.

"1. Pensions at the rates set out in Order in Council of 31st October, 1956, Section I, may be granted to the widow and children of a permanent Regular Officer who dies after premature retirement, provided that the Officer was granted Service retired pay under Schedule I, Section I, of this Order.

"2. Pensions may be granted to the widow and children of a rating or marine prematurely discharged to pension at the rates and under the conditions set out in Order in Council of 31st October, 1956, Clause 6 (i) and (ii) provided the rating or marine had reckonable service for pension of the length stipulated, calculated in accordance with Schedule II, Clause 7, above.

"3. Awards under this Schedule will be subject to the conditions set out in Order in Council of 31st October, 1956, Section IV.

"GENERAL.

"1. The Admiralty reserves the right of withholding permission to retire or be discharged under these regulations from any Officer or man.

"2. Nothing in these regulations shall preclude the Admiralty from retiring any Officer or discharging any man during the currency of the scheme under any other regulations which may be applicable to his case.

"3. No officer or man who has at one time received any benefit under these regulations in respect of retirement or discharge at that time may be granted any benefit under them in respect of retirement or discharge at another time notwithstanding that he may be re-engaged or re-employed in such conditions and with such a termination as would bring him within its scope again.

"4. Officers and men who re-enter the Forces or who, within two years of the date of compulsory premature retirement, take up Retired Officer or similar posts in the Service or other departments, or who obtain established appointments in the Civil Service or the Foreign Service under special schemes for reserving vacancies for ex-members of the Forces, may be required to refund such part of the special capital payment they will have received under this scheme as may be decided by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
