EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order in Council prescribes the Forms to be used for Letters Patent creating Life Barons and Life Baronesses under the Life Peerages Act, 1958, and for the appointment of Lords of Appeal in Ordinary under the Appellate Jurisdiction Acts, 1876 and 1887. The Order amends the Crown Office Rules (No. 1) Order 1927, which prescribed the Forms to be used for Letters Patent creating Dukes, Marquesses, Earls, Viscounts, Barons and Baronets.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 30th day of July 1958.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the Osborne Estate Act, 1914 (4 & 5 Geo. 5 c. 36) it is enacted that Her Majesty may by Order in Council add to the persons for whose benefit the part of Osborne House mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section one of the Osborne Estate Act, 1902 (2 Edw. 7 c. 37) is to be used such other classes of persons as, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the Order, She may determine to be qualified on account of their public services to participate in such benefit, and may from time to time by Order in Council revoke or vary any such Order:

And whereas Orders in Council (hereinafter referred to as the Osborne Estate Orders, 1923 to 1951) in pursuance of the said Osborne Estate Act, 1914, were made on the 28th day of November, 1923, the 7th day of February, 1927, the 5th day of October, 1934, the 22nd day of October, 1937, the 25th day of October, 1948 and the 27th day of February, 1951:

And whereas it appears expedient that the provisions of the Osborne Estate Orders, 1923 to 1951, should be consolidated with amendments in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1—(1) This Order may be cited as the Osborne Estate Order, 1958.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63), applies to the interpretation of this order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2 Subject to the provisions of Article 3 hereof, the following persons shall be qualified to participate in the benefit aforesaid (in so far as any of them are not persons qualified under sub-section (4) of section one of the Osborne Estate Act, 1902)—

(1) (a) men who are serving or who have served as officers of Her Majesty's naval, military or air forces of the United Kingdom, or who held Commissions as officers of the naval military or air forces of the Crown in India before the 15th day of August, 1947, and are British Subjects,

(b) serving officers of the naval, military or air forces of any country within the Commonwealth, being officers entitled to admission to service hospitals in the United Kingdom.

(c) women who are serving or who have served as officers of Her Majesty's naval, military or air forces of the United Kingdom, including the nursing services of those forces and the Women's Royal Naval Service.

(d) women who are serving or who have served as Commandants or Assistant Commandants in Voluntary Aid Detachments attached to the Royal Navy, Army or Royal Air Force,

(e) women who have been granted permanent commissions or appointments in the Queen Alexandra's Military Nursing Service for India or the Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service,

(f) cadets of the Royal Naval College, Dartmouth,

(g) cadets training for permanent commissions in the regular Army or in the regular Royal Air Force,

(h) officers of the naval, military or air forces of foreign countries who are attached to the Royal Navy, Army or Royal Air Force,

(2) (a) men and women who are serving as established, disestablished or permanent unestablished members of Her Majesty's Home Civil Service, of Her Majesty's Foreign Service, or of the Civil Service of Northern Ireland, or who are serving as members of the Civil Service or judiciary of an overseas territory (that is to say, a Colony, Protectorate, Protected State or Trust Territory) or of any federation or association of overseas territories, or who are serving under the East Africa High Commission,

(b) men and women who have served in any such capacity as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph and who have retired on pension or deferred pension,

(c) men and women who were appointed to the Civil Service of or a civil post under the Crown in India or Burma by the Secretary of State for India or the Secretary of State for Burma.

3. No person qualified under the provisions of Article 2 of this Order to participate in the benefit aforesaid shall be admitted to such benefit unless—

(a) in the case of a person of a class specified in paragraph (1) of that Article, his admission is recommended by the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War, the Secretary of State for Air, the Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, or the Secretary of State for the Colonies,

(b) in the case of a person of a class specified in paragraph (2) (a) or (2) (b) of that Article, his admission is recommended by the Head of the Department of the Government of the United Kingdom or of the Government of Northern Ireland in which or under the administration or control of which he is serving or has served, or by the Secretary of State for the Colonies,

(c) in the case of a person of a class specified in paragraph (2) (c) of that Article, his admission is recommended by the Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations,

(d) the Minister of Works is satisfied as to the suitability of the case

(e) there are paid towards the cost of his maintenance and treatment by himself and by the Government or Department in or under which he is or was serving such contributions as may be agreed between the Head of the Department concerned and the Minister of Works, and

(f) such other conditions as may in like manner be agreed are satisfied.

4. The Osborne Estate Orders, 1923 to 1951, are hereby revoked.

W. G. Agnew.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of July 1958.

PRESENT

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 7th day of July, 1958, (N.P. 1808/58) in the words following, viz:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas the Naval and Marine Reserves Pay Act, 1957, provides that Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, shall apply to the officers and men of Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Reserve Forces:

"And whereas it was deemed expedient to make provision as from 31st December, 1946, for the grant of disablement
