PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of December 1959 (N.C.W./MAN.516/59) in the words following, viz.:

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, among other things, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we consider it necessary to establish, for entry initially in the Electrical (Air) and Radio Electrical (Air) categories of the Electrical Branch of Your Majesty's Navy, and subsequently in other categories and branches as required, a new technical rating with the title of Mechanician Apprentice, with appropriate conditions of pay and advancement:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to establish the rating of Mechanician Apprentice, with appropriate conditions of pay and advancement, for entry initially in the Electrical (Air) and Radio Electrical (Air) categories of the Electrical Branch, and subsequently in other categories and branches as required:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence with these proposals."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.
