ROYAL BURGH OF STRANRAER NOTICE

A WRIT has been presented to the Sheriff of Dumfries and Galloway by the Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer, craving the Court:

(1) To revise, alter and extend the existing boundaries of the Royal Burgh of Stranraer for the purposes of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1947 and of any other enactment relating to local government or to any of the functions of local government, and to define in a written deliverance the new boundaries of the said Burgh in the manner following, viz.: Commencing at the point at low water mark on the east side of the Burgh where the present burgh boundary commences; thence in a southerly direction along the line of the present burgh boundary to that point on the Old Bridge of Aird which is immediately above the north side of the Burn which passes thereunder; thence in a straight line in a southwesterly direction to the south-east corner of the Caravan Site on Aird Donald Parks Road, presently occupied by Herbert Cassie; thence along the fence which forms the south boundary of the said Caravan Site and the boundary of Culhorn Approach to the point where the said fence meets the north boundary fence of the railway from Stranraer to Dumfries and Glasgow; thence directly across the said railway to the point where the south boundary fence of the said railway meets the boundary fence between Culhorn Approach and Aird Donald Parks Farm; thence in a southerly direction along the said boundary fence between Culhorn Approach and Aird Donald Parks Farm; thence in a straight line in a westerly direction across Culhorn Approach and along the north side of the access road to Culhorn Parks Farm to the point where the said access road turns north-west; thence across the said access road to Culhorn Parks Farm in a southerly direction and then in a westerly direction along the march boundary of Culhorn Parks Farm to the point where the said march boundary meets the east side of the Black Stank Burn; thence in a southerly direction and then in a westerly direction along the east side of the Black Stank Burn and the march boundary of Culhorn Parks Farm to the point where it meets the west boundary fence of the former railway from Stranraer to Portpatrick; thence directly across the said railway to meet the present burgh boundary; thence along the present burgh boundary to the centre of Stonevick Road; thence in a straight line in a west-north-westerly direction to the south corner of the extension to Glebe Cemetery; thence along the south-west boundary of the said extension to Glebe Cemetery; thence in a straight line in a north-north-westerly direction to a point on the north side of Springbank Road, said point being in a direct line with the present south-west boundary of the Burgh; thence in a straight line along the present burgh boundary to the point where it meets the north side of Leswalt Road; thence in a west-north-westerly direction along the north side of Leswalt Road to a point 160 feet or thereby to the west of the centre line of the access road to Low Larg Farm; thence in a straight line in a north-north-easterly direction to McCulloch's Point and thence in a straight line to low water mark; and thence along the shore of Loch Ryan at low water mark in an easterly direction to the point first described; all in terms of and in compliance with the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1947 and more particularly Section 131 thereof, and to determine in a summary manner all questions that may arise in reference to the matters embraced in this Writ and to appoint the Deliverance of the Court to be recorded in the Court Books and in the Minute Book of the Town Council, and,

(2) to do otherwise as the Court shall deem fit and to find any person appearing to oppose this application liable in expenses.

Upon which Writ the Sheriff has pronounced the following Interlocutor, viz.:

"Stranraer, 7th April 1960. The Sheriff of Dumfries and Galloway, having considered the foregoing Writ and the Maps therein referred to, Appoints a copy of the Writ and of this Deliverance to be served upon the Clerk to the Wigtownshire County Council: Further Appoints the Pursuers to give notice of the import of the Writ and of this Deliverance forthwith by advertisement once in each of the Edinburgh Gazette and the Galloway Advertiser and Wigtownshire Free Press newspapers: Allows any person desiring to oppose the crave of the Writ or to be heard in reference thereto to lodge objections within fourteen days from the date of the last advertisement with the Clerk of Court at Stranraer: And Appoints the Writ and the said Maps to remain in the custody of the Sheriff-Clerk at Stranraer for inspection by all concerned."

"MARGT. H. KIDD."

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.

R. McINNES WILSON, Agent for Pursuers.

Town Clerk's Office, Stranraer.
11th April 1960.
