JUDICIAL SALE OF LANDS IN THE COUNTY OF AYR.

To be Sold, in one or in more lots, by public roup, under the authority of the Lords of Council and Session, within the Parliament or New Session-house of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 14th of November 1810, between the hours of five and seven in the afternoon,

The following parts of the ESTATE of CARBIESTON, lying within the parish of Coynton, and shire of Ayr, viz. CARBIESTON BYRE, MEADOWHEAD, DEUCHRY PARK and POTTERY, and NORTH DEUCHRY, including the COAL in the lands of Deuchry.

Lot 1st, To comprehend the lands of Carbieston Byre, as presently possessed by Alexander Urie, on a lease for 18 years from Martinmas 1807, the proven rental whereof is—

Which the Lords have ordained to be exposed at 611 11. 6s. 9d.

Lot 2d, To comprehend the lands of Meadowhead, presently possessed by William Wilson, on a lease for 18 years from Martinmas 1803, the proven rental whereof is—

Deductions	2	12	11
	1-12th

Free rental of Lot 2d - L. 64 7 0 11-12ths
Which the Lords have ordained to be exposed at 196 4. 14s. 6d.

Lot 3d, To comprehend Deuchry Park and Pottery, presently possessed by John Boyle, and North Deuchry, possessed by David Dickie, both on a lease for 18 years from Martinmas 1803, and the coal on Deuchry, the proven rental whereof is,

	L. 151 2 0

Which the Lords have ordained to be exposed,

Lands	L. 1914	13	6
	L. 2714 13 6

The whole lands are held blench of a subject superior, and the teinds are valued and exhausted by the present stipend. They are appointed to be exposed in one lot, or in more lots.

These lands lie in a district where improvements are spreading, and are well accommodated as to roads, the turnpike-road from Ayr to London passing through Carbieston Byre, and immediately on the south march of the other lands. The lands of Carbieston Byre form a neat detached property, containing about 138 acres, Scots measure; and being surrounded by several highly embellished estates, and lying within four miles of the town of Ayr, it is capable of being rendered a most desirable residence.

The coal on the lands of Deuchry never has been properly worked. It is, however, known that it could, by a very small expenditure, be made to produce well; and as the seam of coal in the adjoining estate, which dips into the Deuchry lands, and which has long been worked to advantage, is now nearly exhausted, there consequently arises a certainty of a continuance of the demand which that seam supplied, and indeed some highly favourable offers of a lordship have been made for it.

The tenants houses and accommodations are in good order. Those upon Carbieston Byre are very complete, having been lately enlarged and thoroughly repaired. The fences are likewise in good condition.

The title-deeds may be seen, and farther information obtained, at the office of Mr Menzies, depute-clerk of session, clerk to the process of sale, or by applying to James Jollie, W. S. or Mr John Hamilton, at Loudon Castle, who will give directions for showing the lands.
