JUDICIAL SALE OF LANDS IN PERTH-SHIRE.

There are to be exposed to Sale, under authority of the Court of Session, within the Parliament or New Session-House of Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 3d July next, between the hours of five and seven o'clock afternoon,

THE LANDS of REINACULLOCH, or REINAKYLACH, and RIENEAND, with the Houses, Grazings, and Sheallings thereto belonging, and whole pertinents, with the teinds thereof, so far as the proprietors had right thereto, all lying in the parish of Blair-Athole, regality of Athole, and county of Perth. These lands consist in whole of about 186 acres, are situated in Glengirnaig, about two miles north of the great military road leading from Perth to Inverness, with a south-west exposure, and lie upon a bed of limestone. The arable ground extends to about 32 acres of a fine free loam, and the remainder is rich pasture. A good peat-moss adjoins the arable land, and there is game upon the grounds.

The lands are at present occupied by small tenants, on a verbal set from year to year, at the proven rent of 86l. 3s. 10d. sterling. They hold of a subject superior for payment of 58l. Scots of feu-duty, with a duplicando thereof at the entry of each heir. The lands have not hitherto paid any cess or school salary, and the stipend presently payable to the minister of the parish is only 3s. 10d. sterling.

The witnesses adduced for proving the value, having deposed that the lands, if let to one or two tenants on a 19 years lease, would be worth 27 years purchase of the free proven estimated rent, being 105l. 3s. 4d., they are to be exposed accordingly, either in whole or in parcels, at the upset price of 2,839l. 10s.

The title-deeds, articles of sale, and copies of the printed memorial and abstract, lie in the office of Mr George Bruce, depute-clerk of session, where, or to Messrs Anderson and Russell, writers to the signet, Edinburgh, or Mr George Condie, writer, Perth, application may be made for farther particulars.
