JUSTICIARY OFFICE
ACT OF ADJOURNAL

(Criminal Legal Aid Fees Amendment) 1971

Made — 27th May 1971

Coming into Operation — 1st July 1971

THE Lord Justice-General, Lord Justice-Clerk and Lords Commissioners of Justiciary, by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by Section 16 of the Legal Aid (Scotland) Act 1967 (a) and of all other powers competent to them in that behalf, do hereby enact and declare as follows:

1. The Act of Adjournal (Criminal Legal Aid Fees) 1964 (b), as amended by the Act of Adjournal (Criminal Legal Aid Fees Amendment) 1965 (c), shall be further amended by deleting Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 and by substituting therefor new sections as follows:—

“3.-(1) There shall be allowed to the duty solicitor representing accused persons in the sheriff court on rota in terms of Article 6 of the Scheme, fees on the following scales:—

“(a) Attendance at the first session of a court for the day a sessional fee of (i) £7 for the first case and (ii) £1 for each additional case, subject to a maximum total fee of £15 for the session until its termination on completion of business for the day or on adjournment by the court, whichever be the earlier;

“(b) attendance at any other session of that court on the same day a sessional fee of (i) £7 for the first case and (ii) £1 for each additional case, subject to a maximum total fee of £10 for each such other session;

“Provided that the fee according to the foregoing scale shall cover the appearance in court of the duty solicitor on behalf of the accused as well as any interview or interviews with the accused or others whether such interview or interviews take place during the same or another session.

“(2) Where, following a plea of guilty, one or more adjournments are ordered by the court, and the duty solicitor requires to appear again, then an additional fee shall be payable to the duty solicitor in respect of:

“(a) additional interviews with the accused or others;

“(b) attendances at court other than during the course of the duty solicitor's period of duty.

“The amount of such additional fee shall be such sum not exceeding £17 as shall form reasonable remuneration having regard to the additional work and time involved, together with any reasonable consequential outlays.

“(3) The provisions of section 13 of this Act of Adjournal shall not apply to this section and those of section 15 shall not apply to paragraph (1) of this section and shall apply to paragraph (2) of this section only within the maximum amount therein specified.

“4. There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom legal aid has been granted in summary proceedings in the sheriff court a fee of not less than £10 and not exceeding £77, and a further fee not exceeding £25 in respect of every day on which an adjourned hearing takes place.

“5.-(1) There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom legal aid has been granted in solemn proceedings in the sheriff court a fee of not less than £13 and not exceeding £127.

“(2) Where a trial has not been concluded on the day on which it started there shall be allowed to the solicitor in addition to the fee allowed under the foregoing paragraph a daily fee in respect of the second and every subsequent day (a) where counsel has not been instructed, not exceeding £36; (b) where counsel has been instructed, not exceeding £25.

“6.-(1) There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom legal aid has been granted in solemn proceedings in the High Court a fee of not less than £16 and not exceeding £127.

“(2) Where a trial has not been concluded on the day in which it started there shall be allowed to the solicitor in addition to the fee allowed under the foregoing paragraph a daily fee in respect of the second and every subsequent day not exceeding £25.

“7. There shall be allowed to the interim solicitor nominated under an interim appeal certificate such fee not exceeding £16 as appears to represent fair remuneration according to the work done;

“Provided that when the interim solicitor becomes the nominated solicitor, the solicitor shall be allowed one account only in respect of the appeal.

“8.-(1) There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom an appeal certificate has been granted in connection with an appeal from summary proceedings in any court of summary jurisdiction a fee of not less than £13 and not exceeding £127.

“(2) Where the hearing of an appeal has not been concluded on the day on which it started there shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor in addition to the fee allowed under the foregoing paragraph a daily fee in respect of the second and every subsequent day not exceeding £25.

“9.-(1) There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom an appeal certificate has been granted in connection with an appeal from solemn proceedings in the sheriff court a fee of not less than £13 and not exceeding £127.

"(2) Where the hearing of an appeal has not been concluded on the day on which it started there shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor in addition to the fee allowed under the foregoing paragraph a daily fee in respect of the second and every subsequent day not exceeding £25.

"10.-(1) There shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor acting for an accused person to whom an appeal certificate has been granted in connection with an appeal in respect of proceedings in the High Court a fee of not less than £13 and not exceeding £127.

"(2) Where the hearing of an appeal has not been concluded on the day on which it started there shall be allowed to the nominated solicitor in addition to the fee allowed under the foregoing paragraph a daily fee in respect of the second and every subsequent day not exceeding £25."

"J. L. CLYDE."

2. This Act of Adjournal may be cited as the Act of Adjournal (Criminal Legal Aid Fees Amendment) 1971, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of July 1971.

And the Lords appoint this Act of Adjournal to be recorded in the Books of Adjournal, and to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette.

H.M. CUSTOMS AND EXCISE NOTICE OF SEIZURE

L/Cpl. Kilbride M., 11 AMR, BDE, HQ Sig. Sqn.,
A Troop, B.F.P.O. 29

PURSUANT to Section 275(5) of the Customs and Excise Act 1952 and paragraph 1 of the 7th Schedule thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely one Grundig radiogram imported by Leonard Anderson of 30 Raigmor Avenue, Inverness at Fort George (Inverness) on or about the 22nd January 1971 have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that the said goods were goods in relation to which the said Leonard Anderson knowingly caused to be delivered to an officer a declaration on form C.3 (Forces) for the purpose of an assigned matter namely Customs which was untrue in a material particular in that it stated that the said goods were the personal property of the said Leonard Anderson and had been used by him outside the United Kingdom for a period of 14 months whereas the said goods did not belong to him and had not been used by him for that period.

Whereby and by force of Section 301(3) of the Customs and Excise Act 1952 the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a solicitor in Inverness who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.

Surveyor of Customs and Excise.

CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF ABERDEEN
 DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Redmoss Amendment

NOTICE is hereby given in terms of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Acts 1947-1969, that on the 6th day of May 1971, the Secretary of State amended the City Development Plan. The effect of the amendment is to reallocate, for industrial purposes, land extending to 44.3 acres or thereby, which is situated immediately adjacent to, and is bounded on the South-east side by Wellington Road (A.956); on the South-west side by the City boundary; on the North-west side (a) partly by an imaginary line drawn parallel to, and at distance of some 950 feet or thereby from the North-west side of Wellington Road; and (b) partly by the South-east boundary of the British Broadcasting Corporation's Wireless Transmission Station at Bedmoss Road; and on the North-east side by an unnamed road joining Wellington Road and Redmoss Road giving access to Campbell's croft and having its centre point approximately at Grid Reference NJ.94400216.

A certified copy of the Development Plan, as so amended by the Secretary of State, has been deposited at the Office of the Director of Town Planning, St. Nicholas House, Broad Street, Aberdeen, and is available for inspection by the public, free of charge, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 12 noon, and 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. on week days from Monday to Friday, inclusive. The amendment becomes operative from the 9th day of July 1971, but if any person aggrieved by the amendment desires to question the validity thereof, or of any provision contained therein, on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1947, or on the ground that any requirement of that Act or any Regulation made thereunder have not been complied with in the making of the amendment, he may, within six weeks from 9th day of July 1971, make an application to the Court of Session.

Dated this 19th day of May 1971.

JAMES F. V. HUNTER,
 Clerk to the Local Planning Authority.

Town House, Aberdeen.

CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF DUNDEE
 ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1967

The City of Dundee (North Balmossie Street-Traffic Restriction) Order 1971

1. THE Corporation of the City of Dundee propose to make an Order under Sections 1(1), (2) and (3) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1947, as amended by Part IX of the Transport Act 1968.

2. When this Order comes into effect, vehicles, save as provided in Article 3 hereof, must not be driven in or upon that length of road specified in the Schedule hereto.

3. Nothing in Article 2 hereof shall apply so as to prevent any person from driving or causing or permitting to be driven any vehicle in that length of road specified in the Schedule hereto;

(a) if the vehicle is a public service vehicle operating as in pursuance of and in accordance with the conditions of a road service license; or

- (b) if the vehicle is being used in connection with the repair in or removal from that length of road of any vehicle which has broken down in that length of road or in connection with the removal of any obstruction to traffic in that length of road, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of that length of road or the laying, erection, alteration or repair in or adjacent to that length of road of any sewer or of any main pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or of any telegraphic line as defined in the Telegraph Act 1878; or
- (c) if the vehicle is being used for police, fire brigade or ambulance purposes or as a vehicle in the service of the Local Authority being used in pursuance of statutory powers and duties.

4. Full details of the proposals are in the draft Order which, together with a map showing the roads affected and a statement of the Corporation's reasons for proposing to make the Order may be examined at the office of the Town Clerk, City Square, Dundee, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays inclusive.

5. Any person wishing to object to the proposed Order should send details of the grounds for objection in writing to the undersigned by 25th June 1971.
