

NOTICE
TO THE CREDITORS OF
ALEXANDER SINGER, lately Wood-Merchant at Moneymusk.

WHEREAS, by a recent decision of the Supreme Court, it has been found that mandatories or agents are not eligible as Commissioners in a sequestration under the bankrupt statute; and whereas two of the Commissioners formerly appointed by the Creditors to act with the Trustee on the sequestrated estate of Alexander Singer, are not Creditors, but only mandatories or agents, and so not eligible for the office: Therefore, a general meeting of the Creditors will be held, within the Trustee's writing-chamber in Aberdeen, on Friday the 4th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of considering said matter, and of electing, if they shall see proper, other Commissioners in room of those not qualified. The Trustee further intimates, that the accounts of his intrusions with the sequestrated funds, and states of the affairs, will be laid before said meeting; and that the whole acts of management of the Trustee and Commissioners, and whole procedure had under the sequestration, will, at the same time, be submitted to the consideration of the Creditors. Intimation is hereby also given, that the Trustee's accounts for the last six months have been audited; and that a state of the bankrupt's affairs has been made up, and will lie at his office in Aberdeen, for the inspection of all concerned; but no dividend will be struck or paid until the claim of Sir Archibald Grant be decided upon.

Aberdeen, September 1811.

NOTICE
TO THE CREDITORS OF
The late MR ARCHIBALD MALCOLM, Writer in Dumfries.

THAT in the process of ranking and sale depending before the Lords of Council and Session, at the instance of Mrs Lillias Malcolm, alias Adair, and Doctor William Adair, her husband, for his interest, against Patrick Malcolm, grandson and heir-at-law of the said Archibald Malcolm, and the Creditors of the said Archibald Malcolm, the Lords, on the 29th day of June last, pronounced an act of roup of the subjects under sale, and granted warrant for letters of publication of the sale;—in virtue whereof, there will be exposed to sale, by public roup, within the Parliament or New Session-House of Edinburgh, upon Thursday the 21st day of November next, betwixt the hours of 5 and 7 in the afternoon, the large dwelling-house in Dumfries, presently occupied by Mrs Maxwell, with the adjoining houses, occupied by John Roddick, Ann Broughton, and John Newal, and the garden, green-plot, two cellars, timber-yard, and stables, lying contiguous to the same, being the subjects which belonged to the said Archibald Malcolm; which subjects will be exposed in two lots.—Lot I, consisting of the dwelling-house, and other subjects to the west of Milnhole Street; and Lot II, consisting of the timber-yard and stable, lying on the east side of the said street, at the prices fixed by the Court, being 1,013l. for Lot I, and 45l. for Lot II.

The articles of roup, and title-deeds, may be seen in the office of Mr George Jeffrey, depute-clerk of Session; and persons wanting further information will apply to James Gilchrist, writer to the signet, agent in the sale.
Edinburgh, September 17, 1811.

NOTICE
TO THE CREDITORS OF
WILLIAM & DANIEL BELL, Candlemakers in Edinburgh.

THOMAS CORBET, Writer in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said William and Daniel Bell, hereby intimates, that at the general meeting of the Creditors, held on the 10th current, being the first lawful day after the second public examination of the bankrupts, they made an offer of a composition of 1s. per pound on the amount of the whole debts due by them, as partners or individuals, at the date of the said sequestration, exclusive of their house and shop rents, and charges of sequestration, payable at three months from and after the date of the approval of the said composition by the Court of Session, with sufficient security, as mentioned in the minutes: The meeting were unanimously of opinion, that the said offer was reasonable, and ought to be accepted of. The Trustee therefore intimates, that another meeting of the Creditors is to be held, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Thursday the 3d day of October next, at one o'clock afternoon, in order finally to decide on said offer of composition.—Of which notice is hereby given to all concerned, in terms of the statute.
Edinburgh, September 12, 1811.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

ALEXANDER HENDERSON, Merchant in Edinburgh, having been appointed Trustee upon the sequestrated estates of ROBERT WALKER and SONS, Clothiers or Manufacturers in Galashiels, and Robert Walker, senior, as an individual, and his appointment having been confirmed by the Court of Session, the Sheriff of Roxburghshire has appointed Wednesday the 25th day of September, and Tuesday the 15th day of October, both ensuing, for the first and second diets of the public examination of the bankrupts, upon the state of their affairs, and all circumstances relative thereto; and that within the ordinary Court-house at Jedburgh, at 12 o'clock noon on both these days.

The Creditors are to meet, within the Spread Eagle Inn, Jedburgh, upon Wednesday the 16th day of October next, at 12 o'clock noon, for choosing Commissioners, and instructing the Trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate.

Those Creditors who have not already produced their claims, and oaths of verity thereon, are required to do so in the hands of the Trustee, at or previous to the said meeting; and unless the said claims, with oaths on the verity thereof, are produced in the hands of the Trustee, betwixt and the 6th day of May next 1812, the Creditors neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtors estate.

September 9, 1811.

NOTICE
TO THE CREDITORS OF
THOMAS BEARDOW, Innkeeper and Merchant in Muirkirk.

THE Lord Succorn, Ordinary officiating on the Bills, did, upon the 14th day of September current, sequestrate the whole real and personal estate of the said Thomas Beardow; and appointed his Creditors to meet at Muirkirk, within the house of the said Thomas Beardow himself, upon Thursday the 26th day of September current, at 12 o'clock noon, to choose an Interim Factor; and also appointed the said Creditors to meet, at the same place and hour, upon Friday the 25th day of October next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee.—Of which this intimation is given to all concerned.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JAMES RODGER, Fleisher in Ayr.

AT a general meeting of the Creditors of the said James Rodger, held upon 30th ultimo, being the first lawful day after his last examination, an offer of composition of 5s. per pound, payable, with security, at three months, was made by the bankrupt; and the Creditors present appointed another meeting to be called, upon Wednesday the 2d of October first, at one o'clock afternoon, within the office of James Murdoch, writer in Ayr, for the purpose of deciding on said offer. Of which intimation is hereby given.

NOTICE.

JOHN GOLDIE, Ship-Owner and Merchant in Ayr, having this day made offer of 5s. per pound of composition, payable at three and six months, and offered security, another meeting is hereby appointed to be held, within the office of A.
