Admiralty-Office, London, August 14, 1811.

WHEREAS it appears that very gross impositions are practised by certain persons calling themselves Admiralty Agents, who, under pretence of the trouble and expences incurred by them in soliciting the discharge of men from his Majesty's service, are in the habit of extorting large sums of money from those who employ them;

Notice is hereby given, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that no applications from persons of this description will in future be regarded, and that representations only made personally at the Admiralty by the Friends, or others immediately interested in the discharge of men impressed in the port of London, or by letter to the Secretary in behalf of those impressed at any of the out-ports, will be attended to, when, upon the production or transmission of the necessary documents, as Apprentices Indentures, Certificates of Baptism, Protections, &c. the respective cases will be inquired into, and the parties made acquainted with the result of the Board's determination thereon free of all expence whatsoever.

A proper person is ordered to attend in the great Hall of the Admiralty from eleven o'clock till two to receive applications on the subject above mentioned.
