NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF JOHN FLEMING, Manufacturer and Trader in Glasgow.

THE estate of the said John Fleming having been sequestrated upon the 25th of September 1810, and the ordinary proceedings held under the statute, the said John Fleming, at the statutory meeting of the Creditors, held at Glasgow upon the 19th of January 1811, made offer of a composition of 4s. in the pound of his whole debts, payable by equal instalments at six and twelve months from that date; which offer was approved of, with security to the satisfaction of the Creditors; and another meeting appointed to be held, upon the 16th day of February last, for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer; at which meeting the offer was accepted, and John Webster, merchant in Glasgow, approved of as cautioner; that nine-tenths of the Creditors in number and value, who had lodged claims upon the said sequestrated estate, having acceded to the said offer of a composition, an application was regularly made to the Court of Session to have the same approved of, which, after the usual intimation, was advised by the Court upon the 19th of November last, when the composition was approved of, and the ordinary judgment pronounced, finding the said John Fleming discharged of all his debts contracted prior to the date of the sequestration; that afterwards the said John Webster, the cautioner, having become bankrupt, an application was made to the Court in the name of two persons claiming to be Creditors, praying to have the approval of the said composition recalled; and the Court, upon the 25th January last, in respect of the bankruptcy of the cautioner for the composition, recalled the discharge hoc statu, but without prejudice to the finding of caution of new, to the satisfaction of the Creditors, in any meeting which shall be called for that special purpose. In consequence of this, a notice was inserted in the Gazette, requesting the Creditors to meet on the 30th January last, to decide on the sufficiency of the new cautioner to be proposed for the said composition, at which meeting the great majority of the Creditors approved of the cautioner proposed, and those who were not present have since approved of the same. But as it was objected by one Creditor at the meeting, that too short notice had been given, and a protest taken by him, that the proceeding was illegal it is requested that the whole Creditors of the said John Fleming will again meet, in the Prince of Wales' Tavern in Glasgow, on the 26th day of February current, at 12 o'clock forenoon, for the purpose of deciding on the sufficiency of the new caution to be given by the said John Fleming for payment of the said composition.
