FORGERY.

SEVERAL FORGED NOTES, in imitation of the Notes of the Governor and Company of the BANK of SCOTLAND, having appeared, chiefly in the neighbourhood of the depôts of Prisoners of War, a CAUTION is hereby, on the part of the said Governor and Company, given against receiving such Forged Notes in payment. And whoever shall, within three months from the date hereof, give such information as shall be found sufficient, on lawful trial, for the conviction of any person or persons concerned in forging and in feloniously using, or, whether concerned in the fabrication or not, in feloniously uttering, or otherwise feloniously using, any of the said Forged Notes, shall receive from the said Governor and Company, a reward of

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS STERLING.

These Forged Notes being executed by the hand, with a pen or pencil, without any engraving, farther description applicable to all of them cannot be given. In most of them the body of the Notes has the appearance of foreign hand-writing. The names of the Bank's officers, though common and well known in this country, are, in the Forged Notes, mostly illegible or wrong spelled. The ornamented characters and the figures are, in the Forged Notes, generally ill executed. In the Genuine Notes the Seals are very ill imitated. In the Genuine Notes, the Seals have a fineness and distinctness far superior to the counterfeit Seals. To this mark particular attention is requested.
