

Commencement, citation and interpretation

1.—(1) This Scheme shall come into operation on 30th December 1974 and may be cited as the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 6) Scheme 1974.

(2) This Scheme shall be read as one with the Post Office Inland Post Scheme 1972 (Post Office Scheme P7/1972) (hereinafter called "the Scheme") as amended by the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 1) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P1/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 2) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P10/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 3) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P11/1973), the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 4) Scheme 1973 (Post Office Scheme P12/1973) and the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 5A) Scheme 1974 (Post Office Scheme P5A/1974).

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889 applies for the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Scheme were an Act of Parliament.

Undeliverable postal packets (except parcels)

2.—(1) For paragraph 16 of the Scheme there shall be substituted the following:

"16.—(1) In the case of any postal packet (other than (i) a parcel, (ii) a letter accepted for transmission as a second class letter under paragraph 35 of the Scheme or (iii) a current registered newspaper) which for any reason cannot be delivered, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) where the name and address of the sender appear legibly on the outside of the packet, the packet shall be returned to the sender unopened, but subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable;
- (b) where the name and address of the sender do not appear on the outside of the packet or are illegible, the packet shall be opened by any officer of the Post Office duly authorised in that behalf and if the packet is found to contain or consist wholly or partly of anything other than commercial advertising matter, newspapers or magazines, then if the name and address of the sender can be ascertained, the packet shall be returned to the sender, subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable;
- (c) if the packet has been opened by an officer of the Post Office in pursuance of sub-paragraph (1)(b) of this paragraph and the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained, or it is found to contain or consist of nothing except commercial advertising matter, newspapers or magazines, it may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(2) In the case of (i) a letter accepted for transmission as a second class letter under paragraph 35 of the Scheme or (ii) a postal packet which is a current registered newspaper, being in either case a packet which for any reason cannot be delivered, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) where the name and address of the sender appear legibly on the outside of the packet, the packet shall be returned to the sender unopened, subject to payment of any charges to which it has become liable.
- (b) where the name and address of the sender do not appear on the outside of the packet or are illegible, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit.

(3) If a packet shall be tendered to the sender under the provisions of this paragraph and he refuses or fails to pay any charges to which the packet has become liable, the packet may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Post Office may think fit."

(2) The following shall be added to paragraph 22 of the Scheme as substituted by the Post Office Inland Post Amendment (No. 4) Scheme 1973:

"(5) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all current registered newspapers (or if enclosed in a cover or envelope on the outside of such cover or envelope) intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the current registered newspaper to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2) of the Scheme as substituted by this Scheme".

(3) The following shall be inserted immediately after paragraph 35(2) of the Scheme:

"(2A) The name and address of the sender shall appear legibly on the outside of all letters intended for transmission by post under this paragraph where the sender wishes the letter to be returned to him as provided in paragraph 16(2) of the Scheme as substituted by this Scheme".

Dated 12th November 1974.

Signed on behalf of the Post Office by V. A. Huckerby (a person authorised by the Post Office to act in that behalf).
