PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 14, TO FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1812.

The following Addresses have been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT. The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the ancient Royal Borough of Inverness.

May it please your Royal Highness,
We, his Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the ancient royal burgh of Inverness, humbly desire to approach your Royal Highness with assurances of our firm attachment, and with sentiments of admiration and profound respect for your exalted character, so prominently marked by the bright example of your filial and delicate duty since the greatly to be lamented illness of our venerable and beloved Sovereign.

With your Royal Highness and our fellow subjects, we deeply deplore the King's continued indisposition, but we deem it a signal proof of the goodness of Providence towards these kingdoms in this perilous age, that while we are deprived of his Majesty's fostering protection, the exercise of the regal office has been vested in a Prince so eminently qualified to discharge its important duties, and so likely to uphold and promote the principles and measures that so gloriously distinguished our revered Monarch's reign, above half a century, thereby enabling him to support the dignity of his crown, and maintain the independence of the British empire.

Signed and sealed, with the common seal of the said royal burgh of Inverness, by me, Provost and Chief Magistrate, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Inverness, the 16th day of March 1812.

JAMES GRANT, Provost.

[Presented by Mr. Charles Grant, jun.]

Unto his Royal Highness George Prince of Price Sixpence Halfpenny.

Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in the county of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in Common Council assembled, deem it incumbent on us to approach your Royal Highness at this time, with the tender of our homage and affection.

Whilst we deeply lament the protracted malady with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict our august Sovereign, we rejoice to find that the confident hopes and expectations of the nation are realized in the wise administration of the government under your Royal Highness.

Pursuing the same measures which endeared our most gracious King to his people, we fondly flatter ourselves that, under the auspices of the Great Ruler of Events, your Royal Highness will be soon able to bring the arduous contest in which the nation is engaged, to an honourable termination.

That your Royal Highness may be long preserved to tread in those steps which so eminently distinguished your pious and august father, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, by

WILLIAM BROWN and JOHN ANDREW, Magist.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT

OF PAY AND HALF PAY FOR NAVY CHAPLAINS.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, London,
9th March 1812.

THE Lords Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the united kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that his Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, by his order in Council of the 4th instant, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, to direct that the following regulations, in respect to the half pay or pension to be allowed to Chaplains of his Majesty's fleet, after long and meritorious service, as well as the pay and allowances during the period of such servitude, shall be established in future, viz.

First—That every ship in his Majesty's navy, from a first to a fifth rate inclusive, shall be allowed a Chaplain on her establishment.

Secondly—That every Chaplain, after eight years of actual sea-service, (or if in a guard-ship ten years), during which period he shall not have been absent from his duty six weeks at any one time, except by special leave from the Board of Admiralty, and who shall produce certificates of good conduct and moral behaviour from the Captains he may have served under, shall be entitled to a pension in the nature of half pay; but no Chaplain to be entitled to half pay or pension if he shall accept any preferment with cure of souls during the term of his required service at sea.

Thirdly—That the amount of this pension or half pay to each Chaplain shall be 5s. per day.

Fourthly—That if, in the event of a peace, or from other circumstances not depending on himself, a Chaplain shall not have been able to complete the full servitude of eight years, a pension may be conferred by the Board of Admiralty according to a scale to be determined on, proportionate to the term of service, in no case, however, to be granted for less than three years service at sea.

Fifthly—That, on the expiration of the period of eight (or ten) years, as the case may be, every Chaplain shall give notice, in writing, whether it is his intention to continue to serve or not; in the first case, every year's additional service shall entitle him, when placed on the pension list, to receive at the rate of 6d. a-day in addition to the pension which his eight (or ten) years servitude may have entitled him to, until the aggregate rate amounts to 10s. a-day, being the greatest pension which any length of service can confer; in the second case, where no further service is intended, the pension shall remain at 5s. a-day, as above mentioned.

Sixthly—That length of service and meritorious conduct shall render Chaplains eligible to all the Chaplaincies of all naval establishments whatever, the disposal of which shall, or may be, left to the consideration of the Board of Admiralty; and that no other clergyman shall be eligible to any of those pieces of preferment than a navy Chaplain; and that the presentation to any of those pieces of preferment, whose emoluments may amount to 400l. per annum, shall cause the half pay of the respective Chaplains to cease, as is provided by law in the case of the divided living of Simonbourn.

Seventhly—That the pay of a Chaplain, while in actual service, shall be according to the following rate, viz.

One hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and the established compensation of 11l. 8s. a year for a servant, in each rate, and to have a cabin allotted for him, in the ward-room or gun-room, where he is to mess with the Lieutenants and to be rated for victuals: and when the Chaplain shall be willing to act as Schoolmaster, he shall be entitled to the bounty of 20l. a year, granted by her late Majesty Queen Anne, by her order in Council, of the 21st April 1702, provided he shall pass an examination before the Lieutenant-Governor, Professor, and Preceptor of the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, instead of at the Trinity House, as required by the above-mentioned order in Council; and he shall be further entitled to 5l. per annum, to be paid to him by every young midshipman and volunteer of the first class, as a remuneration for his education, the same to be stopped out of the said young gentlemen's pay.

Eighthly—That a Chaplain-General shall be appointed, with such emoluments as may be deemed proper by the Board of Admiralty, to whom all applications for appointments shall be made, or will be referred, and all regulations intrusted, relating to the establishment of Chaplains for the Royal Navy, in the same manner as is practised with regard to Army Chaplains.

Ninthly—That no warrant will be granted by the Board of Admiralty, to any candidate for an appointment, unless recommended by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, through the Chaplain-General, as in every way properly qualified.

Tenthly—That Chaplains now serving in the Navy, who may upon due examination be deemed proper to be continued, shall be allowed the time they may have served, as part (not exceeding one half) of that required to entitle them to the pension or half-pay.

By command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.

N. B. The Reverend Archdeacon John Owen, has been appointed Chaplain-General to the Fleet, to whom all letters are to be addressed, under cover to the Secretary of the Admiralty.
