PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 14, TO FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1812.

The following Addresses have been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT. The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the ancient Royal Borough of Inverness.

May it please your Royal Highness,
We, his Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the ancient royal burgh of Inverness, humbly desire to approach your Royal Highness with assurances of our firm attachment, and with sentiments of admiration and profound respect for your exalted character, so prominently marked by the bright example of your filial and delicate duty since the greatly to be lamented illness of our venerable and beloved Sovereign.

With your Royal Highness and our fellow subjects, we deeply deplore the King's continued indisposition, but we deem it a signal proof of the goodness of Providence towards these kingdoms in this perilous age, that while we are deprived of his Majesty's fostering protection, the exercise of the regal office has been vested in a Prince so eminently qualified to discharge its important duties, and so likely to uphold and promote the principles and measures that so gloriously distinguished our revered Monarch's reign, above half a century, thereby enabling him to support the dignity of his crown, and maintain the independence of the British empire.

Signed and sealed, with the common seal of the said royal burgh of Inverness, by me, Provost and Chief Magistrate, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council, at Inverness, the 16th day of March 1812.

JAMES GRANT, Provost.

[Presented by Mr. Charles Grant, jun.]

Unto his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in the county of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Kilmarnock, in Common Council assembled, deem it incumbent on us to approach your Royal Highness at this time, with the tender of our homage and affection.

Whilst we deeply lament the protracted malady with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict our august Sovereign, we rejoice to find that the confident hopes and expectations of the nation are realized in the wise administration of the government under your Royal Highness.

Pursuing the same measures which endeared our most gracious King to his people, we fondly flatter ourselves that, under the auspices of the Great Ruler of Events, your Royal Highness will be soon able to bring the arduous contest in which the nation is engaged, to an honourable termination.

That your Royal Highness may be long preserved to tread in those steps which so eminently distinguished your pious and august father, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, by

WILLIAM BROWN and JOHN ANDREW, Magist.

[Presented by Sir James Shaw, Bart. M. P.]
