

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 21, TO FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1812.

The following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest feelings of attachment to your person, and of reverence for your government.

In common with all his Majesty's subjects, we lament the continued indisposition of our venerable and beloved sovereign, who through so many happy years has proved himself the father and the friend of his people. But we feel this national calamity the less, while we see the government of the empire intrusted to a Prince, who, with his father's firmness, unites his father's zeal for the public welfare; and whose determined adherence to patriotic principles, and to views of impartial usefulness, we are well persuaded that neither the clamours of faction, nor the misrepresentations of party, will ever shake.

We beg leave to offer our humble congratulations on the splendid events by which the era of your Royal Highness's government has been distinguished. We rejoice especially in the success which has attended his Majesty's arms in Spain and Portugal. Looking with peculiar interest to the great struggle which is there maintained against the common enemy of independence and social order, we revere in your Royal Highness the determined supporter of so noble a cause; we trust that it will prove in its issue not less favourable to the interests of Europe, than from its commencement it has been glorious to the British name.

The auspicious opening of your Royal Highness's administration gives us the firmest confidence that, under your government, the glory, the prosperity, and the happiness of this great empire, will not only keep their customary and splendid course, but will descend to our posterity with increasing lustre.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the said city is hereto affixed, this 8th day of April 1812,
WILLIAM CREECH,
Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate.

[Presented by Mr Dundas].

WHITEHALL—APRIL 18, 1812.

LANDS AND FREEHOLD-QUALIFICATION IN THE COUNTY OF MID-LOTHIAN.

TO BE SOLD, by Public Roup, under authority of the Court of Session, on Friday the 29th of May next, in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, at 2 o'clock afternoon,

THE following parts of the lands and estate of MIDDLETON, lying in the parish of Borthwick, and county aforesaid.

1^{mo}, The Castle and Lands of BORTHWICK, containing 56 acres Scots measure, or thereby, at present out of lease, but estimated to be worth, if let for 19 years, 150l. 2s. 1d. of rent, exclusive of public burdens, to be exposed at the upset price of 4,052l. 16s. 3d.

2^{do}, The Farm and Lands of COWBERRYHILL, containing 269 acres Scots measure, or thereby, let at present upon an annual lease, but estimated, if let for 19 years, to be worth 187l. 3s. 2d. of rent, exclusive of public burdens. This lot to have a freehold qualification attached to it, and to be set up at the upset sum of 5,178l. 19s. 2d.

Borthwick Castle is known to be an object of great curiosity on account of its antiquity, and other circumstances. The lands are of good soil, and are capable of being greatly beautified.

The farm of Cowberryhill, though moorland, is susceptible of great improvements. About 35 acres only have been in cultivation, 36 are in pasture or meadow, the remainder is outfield. Middleton lime-kilns are within three miles of the farm-house of Cowberryhill, and there will soon be good access to the farm, as the new highway now forming betwixt Edinburgh and Hawick is to run through it.

Printed copies of the memorial and abstract in the sale may be had by applying at the office of Mr James Walker, one of the principal clerks of Session, or at Mr Archibald Swinton, W. S. Shandwick Place, who will inform as to further particulars; and the lands will be shown by the respective tenants, or by Andrew Paseton, overseer at Middleton house.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE.

SALE BY EXECUTION.
FIRST PROCLAMATION.

BY authority obtained from his Excellency ROBERT GORDON, Governor-General in and over the colony of Berbice, and its dependencies, Vice-Admiral and President in all courts and colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c.

Granted upon a petition presented by DOUGLAS, REID, and Co., inhabitants of this colony, under date of 10th October 1811, versus MURDOCH DALLAS, proprietor of plantation Letterkenny, situated on the Correntine coast of this colony.

I, the undersigned First Marshal of both the Honourable Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell at public execution sale, in presence of two councillors commissaries, and their secretary, in the month of December 1812, (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned cotton plantation called the property of said Mr Dallas, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies there-to belonging; all conformable to an inventory thereof, now lying at the Marshal's Office, for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the before-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Letterkenny, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reasons for such opposition, in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the court, and farther act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum, from the court-house of this colony, and further dealt with according to style and custom in such cases.

(Signed) K. FRANCKEN,
First Marshal.

Berbice, the 26th January 1812.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES M'MIKEN, Tanner and Cotton-Dealer or Manufacturer in Creetown.

NATHANIEL FULLERTON, Writer in Newton-Stewart, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James M'Miken, hereby intimates, that at the general meeting of the Creditors, held at Kirkcudbright this day, being the first lawful day after the second diet of the bankrupt's examination, he made offer of a composition of 10s. per pound of the principal sum of the debts due to his Creditors respectively, as at the date of the sequestration, exclusive of interest and expenses, payable the one-half of said composition in six months after the date of recalling the sequestration, and the other at twelve months after that date, with security to the satisfaction of the Creditors, and for payment of all preferences and expenses of the sequestration, (the cotton-mill being to be restored to the sellers for the balance of her price). This offer having been taken into consideration by the Creditors present, they appointed another meeting to take place, within the house of Peter M'Laggan, innkeeper at Creebridge, on Thursday the 14th day of May next, at mid-day, for finally deciding upon the said offer of composition.—Of which the Trustee hereby gives this intimation, in terms of the statute; and also, that should the said composition not be accepted of, the meeting will have to give instructions concerning extensive claims of preferences, and the general management of the sequestrated estate.

NATH. FULLERTON,
