

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 21, TO FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1812.

The following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest feelings of attachment to your person, and of reverence for your government.

In common with all his Majesty's subjects, we lament the continued indisposition of our venerable and beloved sovereign, who through so many happy years has proved himself the father and the friend of his people. But we feel this national calamity the less, while we see the government of the empire intrusted to a Prince, who, with his father's firmness, unites his father's zeal for the public welfare; and whose determined adherence to patriotic principles, and to views of impartial usefulness, we are well persuaded that neither the clamours of faction, nor the misrepresentations of party, will ever shake.

We beg leave to offer our humble congratulations on the splendid events by which the era of your Royal Highness's government has been distinguished. We rejoice especially in the success which has attended his Majesty's arms in Spain and Portugal. Looking with peculiar interest to the great struggle which is there maintained against the common enemy of independence and social order, we revere in your Royal Highness the determined supporter of so noble a cause; we trust that it will prove in its issue not less favourable to the interests of Europe, than from its commencement it has been glorious to the British name.

The auspicious opening of your Royal Highness's administration gives us the firmest confidence that, under your government, the glory, the prosperity, and the happiness of this great empire, will not only keep their customary and splendid course, but will descend to our posterity with increasing lustre.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the said city is hereto affixed, this 8th day of April 1812,

WILLIAM CREECH,
Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate.

[Presented by Mr Dundas].

WHITEHALL—APRIL 18, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, to grant the dignity of a Knight of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto Lieutenant-Colonel Richard Fletcher, of the corps of Royal Engineers.

CROWN-OFFICE, APRIL 18, 1812.

Members returned to serve in this present Parliament.

Borough of Aldeburgh—Sandford Graham, Esq. in the room of the Right Honourable John M'Mahon, who has accepted the office of Keeper of his Majesty's Privy Purse.

Burghs of Inverury, Elgin, &c.—Archibald Campbell, of Blythswood, Esq. in the room of the Right Honourable William Dundas, who has accepted the office of Steward of the Manor of East Hendred.

BANKRUPTS.

(From the London Gazette.)

- William Sea, now or late of Milton next Sittingborne, Kent, coal-merchant.
- Thomas Lumley, of the Harrow Road, Paddington, Middlesex, stone-mason.
- William Royston, of Macclesfield, Chester, ironmonger.
- John Coates, of Bromyard, Hereford, currier.
- Matthew Roger Barker and John Noon, of Leicester, worsted-spinners.
- Thomas Bell, of Alnwick, Northumberland, scrivener.
- Thomas Hill and Humphrey Wood, of Queenhithe, London, oil and colourmen.
- George Noel, East Stonehouse, Devon, limeburner.
- Joseph Worhall and John Thurston, of Catherine Street, Strand, Middlesex, upholsterers.
- John Swan, Robert Anderson, and George Swan, of Wapping-Wall, Middlesex, merchants.

George Alexander Wylie, of Warnford-Court, Throgmorton Street, London, merchant.

Joseph Coopey, of Churchdown, Gloucester, horse-dealer.

Henry Furber, of New Street, Covent-Garden, Middlesex, hardwareman.

William Mitchell, late of Judd Street, Brunswick Square, St Pancras, Middlesex, builder.

James Cass the younger, of Rochdale, Lancaster, wool-len-manufacturer.

Henry Smithers, Henry Keene Smithers, and George Buck, of Newport, Monmouth, coal-masters.

John Robinson, of Kingston-upon-Hull, draper.
John Crowther, of Manchester, Lancaster, victualler.

LANDS AND FREEHOLD-QUALIFICATION IN THE COUNTY OF MID-LOTHIAN.

TO BE SOLD, by Public Roup, under authority of the Court of Session, on Friday the 29th of May next, in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, at 2 o'clock afternoon,

THE following parts of the lands and estate of MIDDLETON, lying in the parish of Borthwick, and county aforesaid.

1<sup>mo</sup>, The Castle and Lands of BORTHWICK, containing 56 acres Scots measure, or thereby, at present out of lease, but estimated to be worth, if let for 19 years, 150l. 2s. 1d. of rent, exclusive of public burdens, to be exposed at the upset price of 4,052l. 16s. 3d.

2<sup>do</sup>, The Farm and Lands of COWBERRYHILL, containing 269 acres Scots measure, or thereby, let at present upon an annual lease, but estimated, if let for 19 years, to be worth 187l. 3s. 2d. of rent, exclusive of public burdens. This lot to have a freehold qualification attached to it, and to be set up at the upset sum of 5,178l. 19s. 2d.

Borthwick Castle is known to be an object of great curiosity on account of its antiquity, and other circumstances. The lands are of good soil, and are capable of being greatly beautified.

The farm of Cowberryhill, though moorland, is susceptible of great improvements. About 35 acres only have been in cultivation, 36 are in pasture or meadow, the remainder is outfield. Middleton lime-kilns are within three miles of the farm-house of Cowberryhill, and there will soon be good access to the farm, as the new highway now forming betwixt Edinburgh and Hawick is to run through it.

Printed copies of the memorial and abstract in the sale may be had by applying at the office of Mr James Walker, one of the principal clerks of Session, or at Mr Archibald Swinton, W. S. Shandwick Place, who will inform as to further particulars; and the lands will be shown by the respective tenants, or by Andrew Paseton, overseer at Middleton house.

