Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, MAY 5, TO FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1812.

The following Addresses have been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the most sincere assurances of attachment to your royal person, and of ardent zeal in support of your government.

While we cordially join with our fellow subjects, in lamenting the continued indisposition of our beloved Sovereign, we are thankful to God, that the exercise of the royal authority is, in the meantime, vested in a Prince, of whose wisdom and patriotism even the short period of your regency, has already furnished so many endearing proofs.

We rejoice in the signal success, which, during the administration of your Royal Highness, has attended his Majesty's arms; and we cannot but admire the modest and dignified conduct of your Ministers, who, without any boast of superior talents, have eminently evinced that they possess them.

We humbly desire to express our hearty approbation of those public measures, which have been deemed necessary for the security, prosperity, and happiness of the church and state; and we trust, that in the government of these realms, your Royal Highness will be enabled, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to preserve inviolate the rights both sacred and civil, and to advance the glory of the British empire.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the said Magistrates and City Council, in Council assembled, and the City seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 21st day of April, in the year 1812, by JAMES YOUNG, Provost.

[Presented by James Farquhar, Esq. M. P. for the said city.]

Unto his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of Dumbarton.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, gladly avail ourselves of an opportunity of expressing our affectionate attachment to your Royal Highness's person, and respectful approbation of the measures of your government.

Feeling assured, that the line of conduct followed by your Royal Highness, at the entrance upon the duties of your exalted station, originated in the best feelings of human nature, we humbly offer our congratulations on that course having likewise proved the best adapted for promoting the welfare and glory of the empire. Whilst we join in the universal grief for the affliction of our revered Sovereign, we rejoice to think, that if it shall please the Almighty to restore his Majesty to health, his royal mind will be gratified with the review of a period, which his Majesty cannot fail to contemplate with exalted pleasure, both as a King and a Father.

Grateful for the blessings hitherto enjoyed, we engage to exert our limited influence, collectively and as individuals, to maintain that constitution under which the nation is respected abroad and happy at home; and that your Royal Highness, aided and encouraged by the zealous co-operations of all classes, may long direct the energies of the state, with satisfaction and success, shall continue to be our earnest prayer.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the other Magistrates and Councilors, in Council assembled, the 17th April 1812;

JOHN DIXON, Provost.

[Presented by Alexander Houston, Esq. Member for Glasgow.]

Unto his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and offer our most dutiful homage, and sincere attachment.

We contemplate, with the highest satisfaction, the wise administration of government, under your Royal Highness, in behalf of our revered and august Sovereign Lord, the King; and fervently do implore the blessing of the Almighty King of Kings, on a continuation of your endeavours for the prosperity of these realms, and for an honourable issue of the unhappy contest in which the nation is now involved.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the meeting, by

ROBERT KING, Provost.
