FROM TUESDAY, MAY 12, TO FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1812.

WESTMINSTER—MAY 5, 1812.

This day the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of his Majesty, for declaring his Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An act to enable his Majesty to settle on their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Augusta Sophia, Elizabeth, Mary, and Sophia, an annuity of thirty-six thousand pounds, instead of the annuity settled on them by an act passed in the eighteenth year of his present Majesty.

An act to grant to his Majesty duties upon spirits made or distilled in Ireland, and to allow certain drawbacks on the exportation thereof; and to repeal certain bounties given to persons licensed to sell spirituous liquors, wine, beer, and ale, by retail, in Ireland.

An act for continuing until the 1st day of August 1813, several laws relating to the duties on glass made in Great Britain.

An act to continue until three months after the commencement of the next session of Parliament, and amend an act of the last session of Parliament for making more effectual provision for preventing the current gold coin of the realm from being paid or accepted for a greater value than the current value of such coin; for preventing any note or bill of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from being received for any smaller sum than the sum therein specified; and for staying proceedings upon any distress by tender of such notes; and to extend the same to Ireland.

An act to explain and amend an act passed in the fiftieth year of his present Majesty, for explaining and amending an act for continuing and making perpetual several duties of one shilling and sixpence in the pound on offices and employments of profit, and on annuities, pensions, and stipends.

An act to continue the period for purchasing the legal quays in the port of London, and to enable the Lords of the Treasury to purchase buildings in Thames Street, for the purpose of erecting a new custom-house.

An act for extending the time in which coffee of the British plantations may be sold by auction without payment of the duty on auctions; and for making an allowance of such duty on coffee sold, for which the said duty has not been paid.

An act to prevent foreign goods of certain descriptions being brought from the United States of America into Canada, and to allow a greater quantity of worsted yarn to be exported from Great Britain to Canada.

An act to suspend the exportation from Ireland, to parts beyond the seas, of spirits made or distilled in Ireland from corn or grain, until the 31st day of December 1812.

An act to revive and continue until the 31st day of December 1812, so much of an act made in the forty-ninth year of his present Majesty to prohibit the distillation of spirits from corn or grain, in the United Kingdom, as relates to Ireland.

An act to provide for the regulating and securing the collection of the duties on spirits distilled in Ireland from corn malted or unmaltd, in stills of and under one hundred gallons content.

An act to provide for the speedy and regular examination and audit of the public accounts of Ireland, and to repeal certain former acts relating thereto.

An act to provide for the more speedy examination, controlling, and finally auditing, the military accounts of Ireland.

An act for amending two acts passed in the fifty-first year of his present Majesty, for more effectually repairing and maintaining certain roads and bridges, in the county of Perth, and for regulating and converting the statute services in the said county, and more effectually making and regulating the highways, bridges, and ferries within the same.

An act for more effectually repairing and maintaining certain roads in the counties of Perth and Forfar. And to several English, &c. acts, and to thirty-four private acts.

NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS OF

PETER BATTISON, sometime residing in Tulloch of Balquhider, now Changekeeper and Cowfeeder in Glasgow.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Peter Battison, hereby intimates, that at a general meeting of the Creditors, held this day, in pursuance of advertisements in the Edinburgh Gazette, the offer of composition made by the bankrupt at the meeting held on the 18th day of April last, being the first lawful day after his last examination, was taken into consideration, and again considered fair and reasonable; but as the greatest part of the Creditors live in distant parts of the country, the meeting considered it proper to call another meeting of the Creditors, for finally deciding upon the said offer, to be held in the offices of Ferguson and Turner, Writers, Glasgow, on Thursday the 4th day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon.—Of which the Trustee hereby gives notice to all concerned.
 Glasgow, May 11, 1812.
