NOTE:—Imports of uncooked meat and meat products from certain countries are restricted, and in some cases prohibited, on animal health grounds by the Importation of Carcases and Animal Products Order 1972. The recognition of an Official Certificate for public health purposes does not give exemption from such restrictions or prohibitions.

THE OPENCAST COAL ACT 1958

NOTICE is hereby given that the National Coal Board intend to submit an application entitled the Benbain (010801) Application to the Secretary of State for Energy for an Authorisation under Section 1 of the above-mentioned Act to work coal or cause or permit coal to be worked by opencast operations. The land which the National Coal Board require to occupy in this connection is described in the schedule hereto.

A copy of the application and of the map referred to therein can be inspected at the office of the Cumnock and Doon Valley District Council, Area Office, 1 New Street, Dalmellington, Ayrshire, between 09.00 hours and 16.30 hours Monday to Friday inclusive excluding public holidays.

Any objections to the application must be made in writing and addressed to the Scottish Economic Planning Department, Industrial Development Division, 314 St. Vincent Street, Glasgow, G3 8XF, not later than the 9th day of January 1976 and should refer to the title of the application and state the grounds of objection.

Dated the 4th day of December 1975.

W. D. HOMEWOOD,
Duly authorised in that behalf
by the National Coal Board.

SCHEDULE

The land comprised in this application is in two parts, both situated in the Cumnock and Doon Valley District of the Strathclyde Region. The larger area of about 666 acres from which the coal would be extracted lies about 3 miles north-east of Dalmellington, about $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile to the north of the Dalmellington to New Cumnock Road (B.741) immediately east of the Benbeoch and Benbain hills, astride the site of the former Beoch Colliery and south-west of Upper Beoch Farm steading. The detached southern part of about 11 acres which would be used for coal screening and rail loading facilities is the site of the former Pennyvenie No. 1 Colliery and lies about 1 mile north-east of Dalmellington, immediately north of the B.741 road at Low Pennyvenie, east of Sighthill Cottages and is bounded on the north by a disused mineral railway.

FAIR TRADING ACT 1973

REFERENCE TO THE MONOPOLIES AND MERGERS COMMISSION

CERAMIC SANITARYWARE

THE Director General of Fair Trading, in exercise of his powers under Sections 47(1), 49(1) and 50(1) of the Fair Trading Act 1973 hereby refers to the Monopolies and Mergers Commission the matter of the existence or possible existence of a monopoly situation in relation to:

- (a) the supply in the United Kingdom, and
- (b) exports from the United Kingdom of ceramic sanitaryware.

The Monopolies and Mergers Commission shall upon this reference investigate and report in each case on the questions—

- (i) whether a monopoly situation exists and, if so—
 - (a) by virtue of which provisions of Sections 6 to 8 of that Act that monopoly situation is to be taken to exist;

- (b) in favour of what person or persons that monopoly situation exists;
- (c) whether any steps (by way of uncompetitive practices or otherwise) are being taken by that person or those persons for the purpose of exploiting or maintaining the monopoly situation and, if so, by what uncompetitive practices or in what other way; and
- (d) whether any action or omission on the part of that person or those persons is attributable to the existence of the monopoly situation and, if so, what action or omission and in what way it is so attributable; and

- (ii) whether any facts found by the Commission in pursuance of these investigations operate, or may be expected to operate, against the public interest.

For the purposes of this reference—

“ceramic sanitaryware” includes both vitreous china and fireclay articles but does not include pipes and other articles intended for use in connection with drainage.

The Commission shall report on this reference within a period of twenty-four months from the date hereof.

JOHN MATHISON,
Director General of Fair Trading.

9th December 1975.
