

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, JUNE 23, TO FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1812.

THE following Address has been presented to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address his Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.—

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, convened at the Anniversary Meeting, held here this day.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the county of Roxburgh, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with feelings of strong attachment to your person and government.

We deeply lament the indisposition of our much beloved Sovereign, and earnestly pray for his recovery.

We humbly condole with your Royal Highness, and beg leave to express our horror and detestation at the late atrocious murder of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, Chancellor of the Exchequer, the integrity of whose public character, and exemplary virtues in private life, had combined to excite the confidence of the country in his administration of your Royal Highness's government. But while we deplore these melancholy events, we feel much comfort and consolation in the wisdom and firmness with which the weighty and important affairs of the empire have, and we fondly hope and trust will continue to be conducted, by your Royal Highness and his Majesty's ministers.

We humbly beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the late brilliant successes of his Majesty's fleets and armies; and we offer our earnest wishes for a continuance of them during the present arduous struggle in which the country is engaged. And we conclude with again assuring your Royal Highness of our steady loyalty and attachment, and of our firm determination to maintain and support the crown and dignity of the realm, to the utmost of our power; and that the life of your Royal Highness may be long preserved, and the result of your councils may ever tend to the honour, glory, and prosperity of the empire, is our most fervent wish and earnest prayer.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, at Jedburgh, this 2d day of June 1812.

JOHN RUTHERFURD, Preses.
